

Animals Have Equal Rights

- Animals should be treated in the way that is best for the animals concerned - which may not be the way that suits human beings
- It is wrong for human beings to use animals for food, clothing, experiments or anything else
- It is wrong for humans to disregard the consequences to animals of their actions
- This applies to all animals, regardless of the way human beings feel about them
- It may sometimes be morally correct to violate an animal's rights when these conflict with the rights of another animal or a human being - each case must be decided on its merits
