Is That a Fact? Tony Stead, 2023-10-11 The book you are about to read is destined to be the first middle and maybe even the last word on nonfiction writing for young young children It is certainly a text that you will return to over and over again as you do with a beloved cookbook from the Foreword by Tomie dePaola Over eighty five percent of the reading and writing we do as adults is nonfiction yet most of the reading and writing in K 3 classrooms is fiction or personal narrative In Is That a Fact Teaching Nonfiction Writing K 3 Tony Stead shows you how to open the door to the rich world of nonfiction writing that goes beyond what I did narratives and animal reports And he convincingly demonstrates the importance of introducing nonfiction writing in the primary grades Nonfiction inspires enthusiasm in young children because they can choose topics that are of interest to them personally Is That a Fact explores a variety of authentic purposes for writing nonfiction such as describing explaining instructing persuading retelling and exploring relationships with others You will learn how to introduce each purpose using a variety of forms including letters reports poetry captions directions and interviews Part One provides a complete overview of teaching nonfiction writing in the primary grades and includes practical ways for organizing nonfiction resources within the classroom how to assist children in collecting information for research ideas for helping children keep their sense of voice when writing nonfiction a chapter on spelling with examples of how to guide students at each stage of spelling development strategies for assessment and evaluation that guide teaching and learning engagements Part Two provides five different explorations that were implemented in actual K 3 classrooms Each

focuses on a specific purpose for writing nonfiction and features examples of whole class small group and independent instructional engagements a comprehensive assessment rubric that will help teachers tailor instruction to the needs of all learners an extensive resource section that includes lists of books in the exploration grouped by readability levels answers to the most commonly asked questions about teaching nonfiction writing The appendixes include a self assessment questionnaire reproducible pages for exploring specific writing forms and letters to parents Children need to be introduced to the different purposes of nonfiction writing They need to know how to plan compose revise and publish nonfiction beyond narrative Is That a Fact guides you in achieving these goals with your students Writing Through the Tween Years Bruce Morgan, Deb Odom, 2005 It's not easy being a tween A lot of us are either in a tunnel or a bridge A lot of us don't know who we are Instead of following Barney's advice we end up doing what popstars do Kelley age 10 No longer little children but not yet teenagers tweens are beginning to see themselves as autonomous while still struggling to understand where they fit in It can also be an awkward time for teachers who cherish the hilarious and poignant personalities of tween writers but feel pressured by a new emphasis on testing in the intermediate grades Many teachers have virtually abandoned writers workshops in favor of formula writing and prompts even though these workshops may be essential for understanding the emerging competencies and personalities of eight to twelve year olds Bruce Morgan and Deb Odom teach together at a school where formula writing and test preparation led to stagnant writing scores student boredom and teacher discouragement They worked with their colleagues in grades 3-6 to make some dramatic changes in their collective writing instruction These changes included a return to their roots as writing workshop teachers but with new twists The teaching staff drew up new common standards for writing assessment and achievement The revised writing programs also involved integrating insights from reading strategy instruction with a renewed emphasis on the basics of writers workshop student choice teacher modeling revision and using quality children's literature as mentor text Writing Through the Tween Years documents how teachers can get back to the joys of teaching writing in a literature rich thoughtful environment There may be no better way to understand and reach tween writers Successful College Writing Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2012-01-16 Because so many first year writing students lack the basic skills the course demands reading specialist McWhorter gives them steady guidance through the challenges they face in academic work Successful College Writing offers extensive instruction in active and critical reading practical advice on study and college survival skills step by step strategies for writing and research detailed coverage of the nine rhetorical patterns of development and 61 readings that provide strong rhetorical models as well as an easy to use handbook in the complete edition McWhorter's unique visual approach to learning uses graphic organizers revision flowcharts and other visual tools to help students analyze texts and write their own essays Her unique attention to varieties of learning styles also helps empower students allowing them to identify their strengths and learning preferences Read the preface The Common Core Companion: The Standards Decoded, Grades K-2 Sharon

Taberski, Jim Burke, 2014-04-28 With the click of a mouse anyone has access to the standards So aligning our instruction should be a snap If only it were that simple Jim Burke anticipated the challenges and developed the Common Core Companion series for K 12 In his next smart move he deferred to the talents of Sharon Taberski to be author of the K 2 volume What makes Sharon Taberski's Common Core Companion that version of the standards you wish you had It's the way Sharon translates each and every standard for reading writing speaking and listening language and foundational skills into the day to day what you do lesson ideas best literacy practices grouping configurations adaptations for ELLs anchor charts and so much more It's all here page by page The standards for literature and informational texts put side by side for easier planning More than a dozen teaching ideas for each standard Recommendations on how to cultivate the habits of mind that are critical to meeting the standards including interpersonal skills collaboration and perseverance A glossary of academic language for each standard Teaching suggestions for how to support ELL students Developmental debriefs to signal how you may need to adapt expectations to meet students where they're at An online bank of graphic organizers student reproducibles sample classroom charts rubrics and photos Reproducible planning templates for each standard to help you map out lessons select books generate key questions and more With more than 30 years of classroom experience in the primary grades and years of consulting in schools nationwide Sharon Taberski has a depth of knowledge about what both students and teachers in this country need in order to cultivate the win-win of high expectations and high engagement in K 2 She is a nationally recognized educator author and presenter and a leader in the field of early reading instruction Her professional books and teaching materials have revolutionized the way primary teachers approach reading and remain classics in the field
