in Public Libraries Tools and Tips For Practitioners is the sequel to Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Principles Programs and People On the one hand Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses on the information needs and the developmental and psychological characteristics of diverse library users of all ages It endorses the use of ILI to promote lifelong learning in public libraries both by borrowing techniques from academic and school libraries and by building on existing public library traditions of programming and outreach This book also compares lifelong learning in public libraries to informal and nonformal education in museums community organizations and agencies places of worship and other organizations In addition Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries describes basic steps that librarians can execute in order to get started On the other hand Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses much more on how public librarians can specifically plan and implement their instruction with chapters on planning for instruction using teaching methodologies teaching with and about technology and bringing ILI together with more traditional public library services programming and activities such as reference and Readers Advisory services bibliotherapy and cultural and literacy programming Changes in ILI standards and comparisons of ILI with basic reading media digital and cultural literacies are also described Both books together should act as basic manuals for public librarians who promote lifelong learning Creating and Promoting Lifelong
