

Writing a Balanced Argument

What is a balanced argument?

A balanced argument provides information on different points of view and does not lean towards one particular opinion. It allows the reader to make up their own mind.

Use the following structure to help you write a balanced argument on one of these topics:

- Should school uniform be compulsory in schools?
- Should capital and corporal punishment be made legal?
- Are zoos ethical?

Begin your argument by stating the topic or issue.

This argument is to discuss...

State your first argument for and give evidence to back it up.

The first point I would like to make is...

State your second argument for and give evidence.
