

Masters Thesis Proposal Outline

INTRODUCTION (1 PAGE)

- What is the general topic area
- Why this topic is relevant/important (how important to sociologists, to the broader community, etc.)
- What is the specific scope of your research interest

LITERATURE REVIEW (7-8PP)

- The literature review should be a well-organized overview of the research most closely related to your work.
- This might likely include the dominant debates, theoretical approaches, methodological research designs that have been used to understand your topic
- You are trying to demonstrate two things:
 1. You are familiar with the research that has been done in this area and can explain to fellow sociologists who might not be familiar with this specific literature, what is out there
 2. You have found a gap or “lacunae” in the literature...something that has not been well researched (or not been researched utilizing a certain theoretical perspective or methodological design)

RESEARCH QUESTION (1/2 P)

A concise formulation of your specific research question. If you have taken Graduate Social Theory, think about the process we went through with the “Hypothetical research question” assignment. Review some of the feedback you received.

METHODOLOGICAL DESIGN (1-2PP)

- What is your methodological approach?
- How will you get access?
- How many cases will you include?
- Describe how the cases be selected (random, etc.)
- What will be the duration (time-frame) of your research?
- How will you record your observations?
- How will you code the data?
 - Will you start the research with already established research categories (deductive approach) or will you look for the categories (to code) to emerge from the data (inductive approach/grounded theory)?
- Other considerations specific to your approach
- Will your analysis of the coding be qualitative, quantitative or both?

Support Patricia Martin Ma Med, 2015-06-28 Are you writing a paper and confused by your teacher's instruction? Do you want to help your teenager with a school essay but feel lost as to what advice to give? Are you returning to school yourself after years away and find that first essay assignment overwhelming? Is there a local or state issue that you need to write a legislature about but are unsure of how to structure your thoughts? Everyone runs into these situations at some point. People need to know how to state their viewpoints, how to support their views, and how to present information properly. Considering that the writing process takes most writers years to perfect, it is common for teenagers and professional adults alike to struggle with writing. Few writers are masterful essayists when they start out. Writing and supporting a strong thesis statement takes time and practice. Many writers struggle with constructing a thesis and how to support one with valid information. Thesis statements are probably the most challenging elements of essay writing. In this book, we attempt to present the crafting of thesis statements and their support in a simple, straightforward manner. Think that thesis statements are only for high school essays? Think again. Citizens who write letters to government representatives use thesis statements to voice their opinions and use data to support them. Consumers reach out to businesses to suggest product improvements and make requests. Business professionals communicate in memos, emails, and letters to colleagues and other businesses about products and services, and they use thesis statements to make their points. Like all of the books in the Simple Guide Books series, The Simple Guide to Thesis Statements and Support is written for the person who may struggle with this topic and the person who needs basic explanations with straightforward examples. The book helps students, parents, and professionals alike to achieve their goals of improving their writing efficiently. All writers encounter thesis statements and support at some point. Student writers from elementary school through graduate levels compose and defend thesis statements in essays. As well, workers in every profession write thesis statements for a variety of purposes.
