

A woman with dark hair, wearing a bright orange headscarf and a vibrant green dress, is shown in profile, looking down at a small, light-colored object she is holding in her right hand. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey. The overall mood is contemplative and artistic.

Writing Womens Worlds Bedouin Stories:

Writing Women's Worlds Lila Abu-Lughod, 1993 True stories of Bedouin women in Egypt Writing Women's Worlds Lila Abu-Lughod, 2012 Writing Women's Worlds Lila Abu-Lughod, 1993-01-01 Extrait de la couverture In 1978 Lila Abu Lughod climbed out of a dusty van to meet members of a small Awlad Ali Bedouin community Living in this Egyptian Bedouin settlement for extended periods during the following decade Abu Lughod took part in family life with its moments of humor affection and anger As the new teller of these tales Abu Lughod draws on anthropological and feminist insights to construct a critical ethnography She explores how the telling of these stories challenges the power of anthropological theory to render adequately the lives of others and the way feminist theory appropriates Third World women Writing Women's Worlds is thus at once a vivid set of stories and a study in the politics of representation Remaking Women Lila Abu-Lughod, 1998-07-01 Contrary to popular perceptions newly veiled women across the Middle East are just as much products and symbols of modernity as the upper and middle class women who courageously took off the veil almost a century ago To make this point these essays focus on the woman question in the Middle East most particularly in Egypt and Iran especially at the turn of the century when gender became a highly charged nationalist issue tied up in complex ways with the West The last two decades have witnessed an extraordinary burst of energy and richness in Middle East women's studies and the contributors to this volume exemplify the vitality of this new thinking They take up issues of concern to historians and social thinkers working on the postcolonial world The essays challenge the assumptions of other major works on women and feminism in the Middle East by questioning among other things the familiar dichotomy in which women's domesticity is associated with tradition and modernity with their entry into the public sphere Indeed Remaking Women is a radical challenge to any easy equation of modernity with progress emancipation and the empowerment of women The contributors are Lila Abu Lughod Marilyn Booth Deniz Kandiyoti Khaled Fahmy Mervat Hatem Afsaneh Najmabadi Omnia Shakry and Zohreh T Sullivan The book is introduced by the editor with a piece called Feminist Longings and Postcolonial Conditions which masterfully interfaces the critical studies of feminism and modernism with scholarship on South Asia and the Middle East Women Writing Culture Ruth Behar, Deborah A. Gordon, 1995 Extrait de la couverture Here for the first time is a book that brings women's writings out of exile to rethink anthropology's purpose at the end of the century As a historical resource the collection undertakes fresh readings of the work of well known women anthropologists and also reclaims the writings of women of color for anthropology As a critical account it bravely interrogates the politics of authorship As a creative endeavor it embraces new Feminist voices of ethnography that challenge prevailing definitions of theory and experimental writing Islam Cenap Çakmak, 2017-05-18 This expansive four volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times particularly in the Western world With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans there is ever increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force Islam A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion Each entry also features a further readings list for readers In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues including jihad violence in Islam polygamy and apostasy

Romance on a Global Stage Nicole Constable, 2003-09-18 By the year 2000 more than 350 Internet agencies were plying the email order marriage trade and the business of matching up mostly Western men with women from Asia Eastern Europe and Latin America had become an example of globalization writ large This provocative work opens a window onto the complex motivations and experiences of the people behind the stereotypes and misconceptions that have exploded along with the practice of transnational courtship and marriage Combining extensive Internet ethnography and face to face fieldwork Romance on a Global Stage looks at the intimate realities of Filipinas Chinese women and U S men corresponding in hopes of finding a suitable marriage partner Through the experiences of those engaged in pen pal relationships their stories of love romance migration and long distance dating this book conveys the richness and dignity of women s and men s choices without reducing these correspondents to calculating opportunists or naive romantics Attentive to the structural cultural and personal factors that prompt women and men to seek marriage partners abroad Romance on a Global Stage questions the dichotomies so frequently drawn between structure and agency and between global and local levels of analysis

Everyday Women's and Gender Studies Ann Braithwaite, Catherine Orr, 2016-08-11 Everyday Women s and Gender Studies is a text reader that offers instructors a new way to approach an introductory course on women s and gender studies This book highlights major concepts that organize the diverse work in this field Knowledges Identities Equalities Bodies Places and Representations Its focus on the everyday speaks to the importance this book places on students understanding the taken for granted circumstances of their daily lives Precisely because it is not the same for everyone the everyday becomes the ideal location for cultivating students intellectual capacities as well as their political investigations and interventions In addition to exploring each concept in detail each chapter includes up to five short recently published readings that illuminate an aspect of that concept Everyday Women s and Gender Studies explores the idea that People are different and the world isn t fair and engages students in the inevitably complicated follow up question Now that we know how shall we live

Dreaming of Change Julia Droeber, 2005 Julia Droeber focuses on the everyday experiences of young highly educated women in contemporary Jordan She analyses their contributions to social change as well as the strategies they employ in dealing with the problems they face of Hope Cheryl Mattingly, 2010-12-02 Grounded in intimate moments of family life in and out of hospitals this book explores the hope that inspires us to try to create lives worth living even when no cure is in sight The Paradox of Hope focuses on a group of African American families in a multicultural urban environment many of them poor and all of them with children who have been diagnosed with serious chronic medical conditions Cheryl Mattingly proposes a narrative phenomenology of practice as she explores case stories in this highly readable study Depicting the multicultural urban hospital as a border zone where race class and chronic disease intersect this theoretically innovative study illuminates communities of care that span both clinic and family and shows how hope is created as an everyday reality amid trying circumstances Women Workers, Migration and Family in Sarawak Cheng Sim Hew, 2003-08-27 Based on research among the women of the Bidayuh people in Sarawak all of them first generation migrant wage workers this book explores the changes in women's lifestyles from traditional rural lifestyles to modern urban ones Second Life Janet V. Gunn, 1995 Islamism and Cultural

Expression in the Arab World Abir Hamdar, Lindsey Moore, 2015-04-10 Whereas most studies of Islamism focus on politics and religious ideology this book analyses the ways in which Islamism in the Arab world is defined reflected transmitted and contested in a variety of creative and other cultural forms It covers a range of contexts of production and reception from the early twentieth century to the present and with reference to cultural production in and or about Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Yemen the Gulf Lebanon and Israel Palestine The material engaged with is produced in Arabic English and French and includes fiction autobiography feature films television series television reportage the press rap music and video games Throughout the book highlights the multiple forms and contested interpretations of Islamism in the Arab world exploring trends and tensions in the ways Islamism is represented to primarily Arab audiences and complicating simplistic perspectives on this phenomenon The book considers repeated and idiosyncratic themes modes of characterisation motifs structures of feeling and forms of engagement in the context of an ongoing struggle for symbolic power in the region

"Neoliberalization" as Betrayal S. Sharma, 2011-06-06 This book is concerned with the three way relationship between neoliberalism women's education and the spatialization of the state and analyses this through an ethnography lens of women's education programs in India Things As They Are Michael Jackson, 1996-08-22 The real beauty of this book is that the thinking does not stop deep in the thickets of philosophic references Instead true to the spirit of phenomenology we are provided with provocative accounts of how such thinking flows in contemporary anthropological practice XCP Cross Cultural Poetics In this timely collection thirteen contemporary ethnographers demonstrate the importance of phenomenological and existential ideas for anthropology In emphasizing the link between the empirical and the experiential these ethnographers also explore the relationship between phenomenology and other theories of the lifeworld such as existentialism radical empiricism and critical theory Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life Women Singers in Global Contexts Ruth Hellier,2013-02-05 Exploring and celebrating individual lives in diverse situations Women Singers in Global Contexts is a new departure in the study of women s worldwide music making Ten unique women constitute the heart of this volume each one has engaged her singing voice as a central element in her life experiencing various opportunities tensions and choices through her vocality These biographical and poetic narratives demonstrate how the act of vocalizing embodies dynamics of representation power agency activism and risk taking Engaging with performance practice politics and constructions of gender through vocality and vocal aesthetics this collection offers valuable insights into the experiences of specific women singers in a range of sociocultural contexts Contributors trace themes and threads that include childhood families motherhood migration fame training transmission technology and the interface of private lives and public identities

Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod,2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with which they live What We See and What We Say Ephrat Huss,2013-01-04 Image based research methods such as arts based research can fill the absence of the voice of impoverished under privileged populations In What We See and What We Say Ephrat Huss argues that images are deep and universally psycho neurological constructs through which people process their experiences The theoretical model demonstrated in this book demonstrates that images can be used to enable three different levels of communication with self with others similar to oneself and with others who differ in terms of culture and power Dr Huss centers her argument on a case study of impoverished Bedouin women s groups in Israel who used art as self expression and includes many additional examples such as unemployed women and teenage girls in slums women who have underwent sexual abuse and the experiences of illegal immigrants Ultimately the author points to how the inherent structural characteristics of images help to intensify the voices of marginalized groups in research therapy empowerment and social action Mediterranean Families in Antiquity Sabine R. Huebner,Geoffrey Nathan,2016-10-17 This comprehensive study of families in the Mediterranean world spans the Bronze Age through Late Antiquity and looks at families and households in various ancient societies inhabiting the regions around the Mediterranean Sea in an attempt to break down artificial boundaries between academic disciplines
