Written Lives Javier Marias:

Written Lives Javier Mariás, 2006 In addition to his own busy writing career Javier Marias is also the translator into Spanish of works by Hardy Stevenson Conrad Faulkner Nabokov and Laurence Sterne His love for these authors is the touchstone of this work Collected here are twenty pieces recounting great writers lives Thomas Mann Rilke Arthur Conan Doyle Turgenev Djuna Barnes Emily Bronte Malcolm Lowry and Kipling appear all fairly disastrous individuals and almost nothing in his stories is invented Written Lives Javier Mariás, 2007 An affectionate and very funny gallery of twenty great world authors from the pen of the most subtle and gifted writer in contemporary Spanish literature The Boston Globe

A Companion to Javier Mariás David K. Herzberger, 2011 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of the full range of Marias writing including discussion and analysis of his literary and intellectual formation his development as a novelist and short story writer and his unique perspective offered in nearly twenty five years of newspaper columns on topics ranging from religion to football Above all Marias is examined as a writer of fictions As a translator of several canonical works from English to Spanish Marias came to appreciate the preciseness of words as well as their ambiguity their capacity to represent as well as their propensity to distort The author examines Marias s constant awareness of how language can be used to construct stories as the foundation for engaging the world as well as for imagining it The nature of Marias s storytelling and the way in which he imagines form the principal focus of this Companion Publisher description writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com      Eminent Persians Abbas Milani, 2022-08-01 As the 25th anniversary of the Islamic Revolution approached Abbas Milani realized that very little if any attention had been given to the entire prerevolutionary generation Political upheavals and a tradition of neglecting the history of past regimes have resulted in a cultural memory loss erasing the contributions of a generation of individuals Eminent Persians seeks to rectify that loss Milani's groundbreaking portrait of modern Iran reveals the country's rich history through the lives of the men and women who forged it Consisting of 150 profiles of the most important innovators in Iran between World War II and the Islamic Revolution the book includes politicians entrepreneurs poets artists and thinkers who brought Iran into the modern era with brilliant success and sometimes terrible consequences The biographies and essays weave a richly textured tapestry of lives ideas and events that reveals the true story of these decades in the life of a nation The two volumes are divided into sections on politics economics and culture each accompanied by an introductory essay that places the individual stories in their broader historical context Drawn from interviews extensive archival material and private correspondence Eminent Persians is a treasure trove of original documents many appearing in print for the first time Detailed sketches of personalities and personal foibles offer a compelling and highly readable account of this remarkable period of history on a human scale      The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent      Conrad's Presence in Contemporary Culture, 2024-04-30 The anthology consists of essays authored by scholars of different nationalities from diverse cultures nations and primary languages They cover Conrad's presence across multiple media fiction films comics and graphic novels The collection is unique because the contributors focused on Conrad's presence in contemporary culture a constantly changing field rather than well trodden paths The exploration of Polish French Italian Spanish English and American works of art strengthens its originality The artists discussed in connection with Conrad include Olga Tokarczuk Stanisław Lem Robert Silveberg Loïc Godart Christian Bobin Christian Perrissin Tom Tirabosco Eduardo Berti J. M. Coetzee Michelangelo Antonioni Last but not least the volume contains 20 stunning reproductions in full colour from films graphic novels and comics

Performances of Authorial Presence and Absence Silvija Jestrovic, 2020-06-22 This book takes Roland Barthes's famous proclamation of The Death of the Author as a starting point to investigate concepts of authorial presence and absence on various levels of text and performance. By offering a new understanding of the author as neither a source of unquestioned authority nor an obsolete construct but rather as a performative figure, the book illuminates wide-ranging aesthetic and political aspects of authorial death by asking how the author is constructed through cultural and political imaginaries and erasures, intertextual and intertheatrical references, re-performances and self-referentiality. And what are the politics and ethics of these constructions?

Daily Rituals: Women at Work Mason Currey, 2019-03-05 More of Mason Currey's irresistible Daily Rituals this time exploring the daily obstacles and rituals of women who are artists, painters, composers, sculptors, scientists, filmmakers and performers. We see how these brilliant minds get to work, the choices they have to make, rebuffing convention, stealing or secreting away time from the pull of husbands, wives, children, obligations in order to create their creations. From those who are the masters of their craft, Eudora Welty, Lynn Fontanne, Penelope Fitzgerald, Marie Curie to those who were recognized in a burst of acclaim, Lorraine Hansberry, Zadie Smith, from Clara Schumann and Shirley Jackson, carving out small amounts of time from family life to Isadora Duncan and Agnes Martin, rejecting the demands of domesticity, Currey shows us the large and small and abiding choices these women made and continue to make for their art. Isak Dinesen: I promised the Devil my soul and in return he promised me that everything I was going to experience would be turned into tales. Dinesen subsisting on oysters and Champagne but also amphetamines which gave her the overdrive she required. And the rituals, daily and otherwise that guide these artists. Isabel Allende starting a new book only on January 8th. Hilary Mantel taking a shower to combat writer's block. I am the cleanest person I know. Tallulah Bankhead coping with her three phobias: hating to go to bed, hating to get up and hating to be alone, which could she mute them would make her life as slick as a sonnet but as dull as ditch water. Lillian Hellman chain smoking three packs of cigarettes and drinking twenty cups of coffee a day and after milking the cow and cleaning the barn, writing out of elation, depression, hope. That is the exact order. Hope sets in toward nightfall. That's when you tell yourself that you're going to be better the next time so help you, God. Diane Arbus doing what gnaws at her. Colette locked in her writing room by her first husband, Henry Gauthier Villars, nom de plume Willy and not being let out until completing her daily quota, she wrote five pages a day and threw away the fifth. Colette later said, A prison is one of the best workshops. Jessye Norman disdaining routines or rituals of any kind, seeing them as a crutch. And Octavia Butler writing every day, no matter what. Screw inspiration. Germaine de Staël, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, George Eliot, Edith Wharton, Virginia Woolf, Edna Ferber, Doris Lessing, Pina Bausch, Frida Kahlo, Marguerite Duras, Helen Frankenthaler, Patti Smith and 131 more on their daily routines, superstitions, fears, eating and drinking habits and other, finely and not so finely calibrated rituals that help summon up willpower and self-discipline, keeping themselves afloat with optimism and fight as they create and avoid creating their creations      Postmortem Postmodernists Laura E. The Feud Alex Beam, 2016 In 1940 Edmund Wilson was the undisputed big dog of American letters Vladimir Nabokov was a penniless Russian exile seeking asylum in the States Wilson became a mentor to Nabokov introducing him to every editor of note assigning reviews for The New Republic engineering a Guggenheim Their intimate friendship blossomed over a shared interest in all things Russian ruffled a bit by political disagreements But then came Lolita and suddenly Nabokov was the big and very rich dog Finally the feud erupted in full when Nabokov published his hugely footnoted and virtually unreadable literal translation of Pushkin s famously untranslatable verse novel Eugene Onegin Wilson attacked his friend s translation with hammer and tong in the New York Review of Books Nabokov counterattacked in the same publication Back and forth the increasingly aggressive letters volleyed until their friendship was reduced to ashes by the narcissism of small differences

Malcolm Lowry, 2007-08-21 A NEW YORK REVIEW BOOKS ORIGINAL Notorious for a misspent life full of binges blackouts and unimaginable bad luck Malcolm Lowry managed against every odd to complete and publish two novels one of them Under the Volcano an indisputable masterpiece At the time of his death in 1957 Lowry also left behind a great deal of uncollected and unpublished writing stories novellas drafts of novels and revisions of drafts of novels Lowry was a tireless revisiter and reviser and interrupter of his work long impassioned haunting beautiful letters overflowing with wordplay and lament fraught short poems that display a sozzled off the cuff inspiration all Lowry s own Over the years these writings have appeared in various volumes all long out of print Here in The Voyage That Never Ends the poet translator and critic Michael Hofmann has drawn on all this scattered and inaccessible material to assemble the first book that reflects the full range of Lowry s extraordinary and singular achievement The result is a revelation In the letters acknowledged to be among modern literature s greatest we encounter a character who was as contemporaries attested as spellbinding and lovable as he was self destructive and infuriating In the late fiction the long story Through the Panama sections of unfinished novels such as Dark as the Grave Wherein My Friend Is Laid and the little known La Mordida we discover a writer who is blazing a path into the unknown and as he goes improvising a whole new kind of writing Lowry had set out to produce a great novel something to top Under the Volcano a multivolume epic and intimate tale of purgatorial suffering and ultimate redemption called among other things The Voyage That Never Ends That book was never to be What he produced instead was an unprecedented and prophetic blend of fact and fiction confession and confusion essay and free play that looks forward to the work of writers as different as Norman Mailer and William Gass but is like nothing else Almost in spite of himself Lowry succeeded in transforming his disastrous life into an exhilarating art of disaster The Voyage That Never Ends is a new and indispensable entry into the world of one of the masters of modern literature
