Vamos de Compras

You have decided to volunteer and give items back to your community. You have also just found out that the family of last year's exchange student from Valencia, returned from a house fire. They are without a home and lost all of their belongings. You want to help them out and have to raise money to collect 1,000 American dollars for the family. Instead of just giving money, you decide to purchase clothing for them to replace some items they lost.

In this activity you will visit the website for a popular store that many Spanish people use to buy clothes, items for the home and other products. You will shop through the website for clothes to get the family through the Spring/Summer while taking note of some new Spanish vocabulary words. Then, you will pretend that your online shopping cart contains the attached gift list, record your item vocabulary, and present your project to the class.

You will be graded according to the rubric below.
