Mahatma Gandhi: The Father Of The Nation

Mahatma Gandhi, born on October 2, 1869, in Porbandar, Gujarat, is known as the Father of the Nation in India. He led the country's fight for freedom against British rule using non-violent methods, which made him famous worldwide.

Gandhi believed in the power of truth and non-violence (Ahimsa). His principle of Satyagraha, or peaceful resistance, was the foundation of his struggles. One of his most famous acts was the Salt March in 1930, where he walked 240 miles to make salt from the sea, defying British laws.

Gandhi also emphasized self-reliance and encouraged people to wear clothes made of khadi, handspun fabric. His vision was for India to be independent and strong in its traditions and culture. During the Quit India Movement of 1942, Gandhi called for the British to leave India. His leadership and peaceful protests led to India's independence in 1947.

Mahatma Gandhi's teachings of love, peace, and non-violence continue to inspire people around the world, showing that even the smallest person can change the world with courage and compassion.
