Prize essay on the farming of Northamptonshire
William Bearn, 1852
New Light on Pope
Norman Ault, 2025-08-01. First published in 1949, New Light on Pope is a collection of new poems by one of the greatest poets, new facts about his life and work, new judgements on his quarrels, new evidence of his loyalty to his friends, and new solutions of old problems. These discoveries made during twenty years of intermittent research are presented in this volume, which has already been declared by a well-known biographer of the poet, "definitely to establish Pope once for all as the man he was." Other names beside Pope's figure in the present work, and people like Addison, Swift, Gay, and Cibber, to mention only the best known, are seen in actions and attitudes which will be unfamiliar even to eighteenth-century specialists.

Stories and Anecdotes
Jim Wright, 2023-11-10. This is a collection of stories, anecdotes, and reminiscences written, collected, and compiled over a long professional life. They amuse or provoke serious thought, aiming to make the reader laugh for a few moments and think for much longer. Most are in short-essay form, some with a discursive introductory beginning leading to a serious or amusing ending, the real thrust of the story. Most are based on personal experience. The stories about bees are factual and based on a life-long hobby of beekeeping. The last, thoughtfully written section from a lifetime as a doctor, is entirely serious, educational, and thought-provoking.

Orientalism and the Reception of Powerful Women from the Ancient World
Filippo Carlà-Uhink, Anja Wieber, 2020-02-06. Why is Cleopatra a descendent of Alexander the Great, a Ptolemy from a Greek Macedonian family in popular imagination an Oriental woman? True, she assumed some aspects of pharaonic imagery in order to rule Egypt, but her Orientalism mostly derives from ancient Roman and modern stereotypes. Both the Orient and the idea of a woman in power are signs in the Western tradition of otherness, and in this sense they can easily overlap and interchange. This volume investigates how ancient women and particularly powerful women such as queens and empresses have been reimagined in

Western and not only Western arts highlights how this re imagination and re visualization is more often than not the product of Orientalist stereotypes even when dealing with women who had nothing to do with Eastern regions and compares these images with examples of Eastern gaze on the same women Through the chapters in this volume readers will discover the similarities and differences in the ways in which women in power were and still are described and decried by their opponents
