

Little Bird Learns to Fly

Story By: Meredith Williams

Every day, Mother took Little Bird and his brother and sister out of their nest. She led them down the long leafy branches of their tree. "It's time to learn to fly!" Mother Bird chirped one sunny spring morning. The birds took turns flapping their wings to try out their new feathers. Sister and Brother Bird hopped down the branch moving their wings up and down. Little Bird would flap his wings, but no matter how hard he tried, he could not fly as high as his brother and sister.

Soon, Brother and Sister began flying everywhere. They flew down to the ground to get water from a puddle and grabbed berries to eat as a snack. Little Bird watched them from the safety of the branch. "Come on, Little Bird. You can do it!" said Brother. "Flap your wings like this," called Sister as she flew through the air. "I can't fly, I don't know how," Little Bird said to his mother. "You will learn to fly, you just have to keep practicing," explained Mother.

Little Bird spent the next few days flapping his wings and hopping down the branch. Each time he got a little higher, but he was too afraid to hop off the branch to test his wings. Then, one morning while he was practicing, Little Bird felt the wind blow through his feathers and a drop of rain hit his beak. "It's time to come back to the nest, it's starting to rain!" called his mother. All at once, a strong gust of wind blew Little Bird off the branch. He flapped his wings just as he had practiced many times. Before he knew it, he was flying. "Look at Little Bird, he is flying!" squeaked Brother. Little Bird's family flew over to him chirping happily. "You did it!" they shouted with joy. Little Bird's practice had paid off. He could finally fly! Together, they spent the rest of the rainy day flying, singing, and cheering for Little Bird.

Short Stories by Short People Daniel Fisher, 2001-10-15 This collection of stories by young authors covers a wide range of fiction and nonfiction topics Here is a sampling of works

The track looked like a huge water slide built of ancient wooden scaffolding Instead of a plastic trough and running water it was a bed of twisting glistening ice Now I could see that a sixty foot run after making a huge curve merged into a forty foot run Then the run made multiple turns before one final downward plunge For a second it seemed miraculous that the track wasn't littered with broken bodies I climbed the steep stairs to the lowest run and waited I felt nauseous and hoped no one could tell I was a little scared Too soon it was my turn There was no escape I positioned myself on the sled I fought panic while waiting for the operator to give me the go signal Off I went with my heart skipping a few beats The wind whipped against my face from Polar Bear Camping It's 6:50 a.m. I know this time all too well The ritual has begun My mom climbs the steps of the ladder to my top bunk to tickle my feet a tactile alarm clock Oh it's Thursday not just any day of the week It's the day when exhaustion and fatigue will rule me and my only salvation will be a special place on the most comfortable sofa in the family room where the angle of the television screen is just right and the pillows outline the shape of my body I call this place THE SPOT from The Perfect Spot Aaron awoke disoriented and confused Then suddenly he recognized his surroundings and remembered his fall He quickly thanked god that he landed in bushes and was only bruised and scratched He quickly looked down at his watch it was 8:00 in the morning He realized that his friends were gone THEY THOUGHT HE WAS DEAD He knew that to survive he needed his pack He looked up and started to climb without ropes from Lost in the Australian Outback Suddenly the ghost appeared and looked around the room impatiently Where is that girl when I need her The ghost listened carefully and heard a gurgling sound She went through the wall and gently tapped Kary's shoulder Kary turned around and screamed although the foam coating her mouth muffled her scream She slowly picked up her cup and gurgled while staring at the ghost cautiously from One's Pride is One's Courage The Tooth Fairy wasn't pretty at all Her nose was warty and pointy Her hair was gray and greasy Then all of a sudden the Tooth Fairy picked up Cindy's favorite blanket from her grandmother and started to run away The Tooth Fairy dashed to the window and Cindy raced after her She could hear her heart beat so fast She didn't feel shy at that moment at all she just had to catch the Tooth Fairy She just had to get that blanket back from The Tooth Fairy I don't exactly believe in ghosts or monsters but I strongly believe that there are strange creatures out there that no one knows about I've heard their cries many times especially when lying in my bed at night Sometimes thinking about the strange creatures gives me the shivers up my spine There is no use in calling my mother or father when I'm scared because they never believe me of course All they say are things like There are no strange creatures making noises Becca It's just your runaway imagination Or We can have your ears checked next week from The Grand Adventure He galloped down an alley only to be cut off by a large black wall The wall seemed to balk and shift Then he realized it was not totally black but had small planet like dots that co

Resources in Education ,1998-12 Research in Education ,1973-12 Verbal Protocols of Reading Michael Pressley,Peter Afflerbach,2012-12-06 Researchers from a variety of disciplines have collected verbal protocols of reading as a window on conscious reading processes Because such work has occurred in different disciplines many who have conducted verbal protocol analyses have been unaware of the research of others This volume brings together the existing literature from the various fields in which verbal protocols of reading have been generated In so doing the authors provide an organized catalog of all conscious verbal processes reported in studies to date the most complete analysis of conscious reading now available in the literature When the results of all of the studies are considered there is clear support for a number of models of reading comprehension including reader response theories schema perspectives executive processing models and bottom up approaches such as the one proposed by van Dijk and Kintsch The summary of results also demonstrates that none of the existing models goes far enough Thus a new framework constructively responsive reading is described This new model encompasses reader response schematic and executive processing and induction from word and phrase level comprehension to higher order meaning The important concept in this new model is that readers respond to bits and pieces of text as they are encountered all as part of the overarching goal of constructing meaning from text This volume also includes a critical review of the thinking aloud methodology as it has been used thus far This examination suggests that it continues to be an immature methodology and that much work is needed if a complete theory of conscious processing during reading is to be developed via verbal protocol analysis Finally after reviewing what has been accomplished to date the authors provide extensive discussion of the work that remains to be done and the adequacy of the verbal protocol methodology for permitting telling conclusions about text processing Oh Yeah?
