1.Summary

The story is about two people who love each other deeply and have to hide their feelings. Michael is Black and Dora is Coloured. The two lovers are eventually exposed when Dora's little brother, Bobby, learns that his sister is in a relationship with a native^{*}. This revelation leads to a feud between the lovers' families, which later results in Michael's attack. The irony in the story lies in the fact that Davie (Dora's brother) has had a relationship with Salome (Mike's sister) from which a child was conceived.

^{*}Native is a term that was used during apartheid to refer to black people.

^{*}Meneer means Mister (Mr) in Afrikaans.

2.Title

Forbidden love refers to a romantic relationship between two individuals which is not approved. The disapproval could be because of religious, cultural or political differences, among others. In this story, the title refers to a romantic relationship between Dora and Michael, which is highly discouraged by the 'coloured people' of Noordgesig.

3.Themes

3.1 Fear

Dora and Michael live their lives in fear of their relationship being exposed. Dora's brother, Davie, fears that he might be judged for his relationship with Michael's sister with whom he has a baby. This is kept a secret until later when Salome confronts Davie's family.

3.2 Hypocrisy

Davie has a relationship with Salome (a black woman) and a child is born. Ironically, Davie still considers it appropriate to beat Michael up when he also has a relationship with Michael's sister. It is hypocritical that Davie does not approve of her sister's relationship with a black man while he even has a child with a black woman.
