

Question b.

to a greater extent the Black Power Movement was concerned with the promotion of Black power, instilling black pride and the development of self-respect among African Americans in the 1960s ✓

The Black Power Movement came about as a failure of the non-violent approach of the Civil Rights Movement. The Civil Rights Movement was unable to bring about major changes in the lives of African Americans living in the Northern States of America such as Los Angeles, New York and Chicago. By 1965 they had no pride, faced major economic and social issues such as unemployment, drug abuse, lived in poverty, had shum houses and they were not given equal opportunities like the white Americans. ✓

The Black Power Movement grew from the Black Power Philosophy. Black Power was an idea that aimed to instill a sense of self worth in African American and to encourage African Americans to become independent and proud of their heritage and culture. The Black Power Movement urged all African Americans not to rely on "hand outs" from the white Americans. The BPM also aimed to encourage African Americans to study their own history and to be proud of being Black. One of the major aims of the BPM was the promotion of black power, instilling black pride and encouraging self-respect among African Americans. ✓
The BPM was popular in the USA Northern States of America. ✓
