

A letter to my future daughter ❤️

I hope that you look back and know that I didn't give you everything you wanted but that I gave you what you needed.

That I gave you my love, my attention, my adoration, my body, and my warmth.
I hope that you grow to love traveling, the business of life, high quality things over worldy things that wither away.

I hope you look back and remember all the the memories.

That I hardly held you back, hardly said no, and embraced the imperfections in life.
I hope you remember that I cherished you and told you to go out and chase your dreams.

I hope you remember dancing in the rain, jumping in the puddles, making messes, and expressing yourself; and that I joined you on these adventures. All so that when I say no you know that I am serious.

I hope you remember me not only loving you in every way, but also wanting to spend every second with you.

I hope you remember running into the kitchen to the smell of fresh bread, with the windows open and the smell of flowers flowing inside. Having a dance party while waiting for our tea to brew.

I hope you remember me dancing with your father while making dinner, sneaking a kiss, and holding hands as a family while we pray.

But most of all, I hope you think back and remember a Godly women, one who read her Bible, sang hymns for lullabies, and loved her husband and children with all her heart.

I hope you remember my heart, my security, my warmth, and my love for you, oh future daughter.
