Empirical Research and Writing Leanne C. Powner, 2014-11-04 Students can easily misstep when they first begin to do research Leanne C Powner s new title Empirical Research and Writing A Student s Practical Guide provides valuable advice and guidance on conducting and writing about empirical research Chapter by chapter students are guided through the key steps in the research process Written in a lively and engaging manner and with a dose of humor this practical text shows students exactly how to choose a research topic conduct a literature review make research design decisions collect and analyze data and then write up and present the results The book s approachable style and just in time information delivery make it a text students will want to read and its wide ranging and surprisingly sophisticated coverage will make it an important resource for their later coursework Identity Papers Bronwyn T Williams, 2006-09-30 How do definitions of literacy in the academy and the pedagogies that reinforce such definitions influence and shape our identities as teachers scholars and students The contributors gathered here reflect on those moments when the dominant cultural and institutional definitions of our identities conflict with our other identities shaped by class race gender sexual orientation location or other cultural factors These writers explore the struggle identify the sources of conflict and discuss how they respond personally to such tensions in their scholarship teaching and administration They also illustrate how writing helps them and their students compose alternative identities that may allow the connection of professional identities with internal desires and senses of self. They emphasize how identity comes into play in education and literacy and how institutional and cultural power is reinforced in the pedagogies and values of the writing classroom and writing profession.

Rewriting Success in Rhetoric and Composition Careers Amy Goodburn, Donna LeCourt, 2012-09-15 Rewriting Success in Rhetoric and Composition Careers presents alternative narratives of what constitutes success in the field of rhetoric and composition from those who occupy traditionally undervalued positions in the academy: tribal college, community colleges, postdoctoral tracks, those who have used their PhDs outside of the academy, a law firm, a textbook publisher, a community center, and those who have engaged in professionalization opportunities not typical in the field: research center, a nonprofit humanities organization.
