Yaghjian, 2006-11-24 In its creative integration of the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology Writing Theology Well provides a standard text for theological educators engaged in the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it will also encourage excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century Chantel Lavoie, 2023-11-10 Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century explores how boyhood was constructed in different creative spaces that reflected the lived experience of young boys through the long eighteenth century not simply in children's literature but in novels poetry medical advice criminal broadsides and automaton exhibitions The chapters encompass such rituals as breeching learning to read and write and going to school They also consider the lives of boys such as chimney sweeps and convicted criminals whose bodily labor was considered their only value and who often did not live beyond boyhood Defined by a variety of tasks expectations and objectifications boys real imagined and sometimes both were subject to the control of their elders and were used as tools in the cause of civil society commerce and empire This book argues that boys in the long eighteenth century constituted a particular kind of currency both valuable and expendable valuable because of gender expendable because of youth

Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change Justin Everett, Russell Mayo, 2024-11-25 Catastrophic storms searing heat waves crumbling waterfronts warming oceans air fouling forest fires and mass extinction have become facts of life Under these conditions it is difficult to imagine that the global industrial civilization will continue in its present form This requires us to reconsider the subject of ecocomposition from a new perspective What does it mean to teach college writing in the face of this sobering reality The introduction reviews the history of ecocomposition and reframes it in light of the apocalyptic turn in climate discourse over the last quarter century as well as the role that ecocomposition theory can play in framing these discussions Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change is organized into four sections The first section considers the environmental narrative from the viewpoint of climate justice while the second reframes pedagogies of place in light of the climate catastrophe The third section examines the intersections of writing studies and the natural sciences while the fourth section entertains the personal and emotional dimensions of teaching ecocomposition within the framework of catastrophic climate change If we have been successful these chapters provide a starting place for having sobering discussions in our classrooms and considering what ecocomposition means in this unsettling age
