Addonizio, Dorianne Laux, 1997-09-02 Two accomplished poets and teachers offer a poetry primer that includes short essays on the elements of poetry technique and possible subjects for writing along with writing exercises tips on getting published and examples of contemporary poetry Developing Multilingual Writing Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14

With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages social contexts and genres In a series of closely related studies that build on each other we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages This book which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing multicompetence adaptive transfer complex systems theory motivation and translanguaging contributes to ongoing efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research This book focusses on how writer agency control over text construction audience awareness ability to meet expectations of prospective readers and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages The within writer cross sectional text analysis Chapters 2-5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced N 103 supplemented by insights from these writers reflections We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6-9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages They also demonstrate the writers multi directional use of dynamic transfer reuse and reshaping for L1 L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1 L2 or L1 L3 translanguaging for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity accuracy and fluency Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction e g specific characteristics of Personal Emergent and Mature Voice are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres

Countdown to Poetry Writing Steve Bowkett,2009-06-02 Developing children s writing abilities boosts their confidence creates enjoyment and relevance in the task and cultivates a range of decision making and problem solving skills that can then be applied across the curriculum The Countdown series provides all the support you need in helping children to improve their prose poetry and non fiction writing This guide provides all the support you need in helping pupils to improve their poetry writing Countdown to Poetry Writing is a comprehensive and flexible resource that you can use in different ways including stand alone modules that cover all the essential aspects of writing a poem including word play use of metaphor rhyme and many others countdown flowchart providing an overview showing how modules are linked and how teachers can progress through them with the pupils photocopyable activity sheets for each module that show how to make the decisions and solve the problems that all writers face along the road from first idea to finished piece of work teachers notes for modules with tips and guidance including how modules can be used in the classroom links to other modules and curriculum links and advice on helping and guiding pupils in their writing a self study component so that children can make their own progress through the materials giving young writers a sense of independence in thinking about their work and offering built in scaffolding of tasks so that less experienced or less confident children get more support from the resource headers for each module showing where along the countdown path you are at that point In short Countdown to Poetry Writing saves valuable planning time and gives you all the flexibility you need teachers might want to utilise either the self study or countdown aspects of the book or simply dip into it for individual lesson activities to fit in with their own programmes of work

Worlds of Hungarian Writing

András Kiséry,Zsolt Komáromy,Zsuzsanna Varga,2016-05-12 Worlds of Hungarian Writing responds to the rapidly growing interest in Hungarian authors throughout the English speaking world Addressing an international audience the essays in the collection highlight the intercultural contexts that have molded the conventions genres and institutions of Hungarian writing from the nineteenth century to the present They are mapping some of the ways in which a modern literature is produced by encounters with languages cultures and media external to its traditionally conceived boundaries But rather than viewing intercultural exchange as an external force the collection recognizes its enabling importance to the globalizing reception and circulation of Hungarian writing over the continuities and constraints implied by more traditional national narratives Worlds of Hungarian Writing posits intercultural exchange as the very substance of a literary culture Discussions of the politics of appropriation and translation of the impact of migr writers and critics and of the use of world literary models in genre formation complement studies of the fate of western leftist critical theory in post 1989 Hungary of the role of African American models in contemporary Roma culture and of the use of photography in late 20th century prose The volume spans a wide generic range from the achievements of such canonical 19th century critics and poets as J zsef Bajza and J nos Arany to neglected women authors translators such as Theresa Pulszky to modernist writers and critics like Antal Szerb and Gy rgy Luk cs and to the contemporary novelists P ter Esterh zy P ter N das and L szl Krasznahorkai Each essay is an original contribution to comparative literature and to the study of this Central European literature but is intended to be accessible to readers unfamiliar with its traditions Writing Strategies for All Primary Students Janet C.
