Yoder, J.M.L. Jonker, R.A.B. Leaper, 2012-12-06 The historic Binnenhof seat of the Dutch government in The Hague provided the setting January 1985 for a conference in which participants from eleven countries met to consider the theme Support networks in a caring community research and policy fact and fiction At the outset conference leadership provided by Professors J M L Jonker The Netherlands and R A B Leaper United Kingdom urged the conferees not to allow their enthusiasm for informal support networks to combine with the pervasive awareness of the failures of welfare states into a simplistic stance of advocacy with a consequent appeal to politicians to direct state funds accordingly Legitimate criticisms of the responses of welfare states to the needs of citizens were to be seen as the context for discussion not the substance of conference deliberations More specifically if it is now apparent to many people that governmental assistance of individuals with social needs can lead to an undesirable dependency on the part of increasingly passive citizens that awareness does not lend logical support to an ideological position that governmental expenditures are pernicious per se to be replaced as rapidly as possible by a return to reliance on self family friends and associations that are developed voluntarily and financed by those who are sufficiently interested Routledge Library Editions: British Sociological Association Various, 2021-07-14 The volumes in this set originally published between 1969 and 2001 is comprised of original books published in conjunction with the British Sociological Association The set draws together original research by leading academics based on study groups and conference papers in the areas of youth race the sociology of work gender social research urban studies class deviance and social control law development and health Each volume provides a rigorous examination of related key issues This set

Conciliation in Separation and Divorce Lisa Parkinson, 2023-07-05 Originally published in 1986 reissued here with a new preface this study of the origins and early development of family conciliation services in Britain outlines their philosophy methods of work and reported results illustrated with case examples The examples demonstrate that disputes between separating and divorcing couples involve complex personal and family problems as well as legal ones and that the practice of conciliation needed to be set in the context of current changes in family law and court procedures At the time many solicitors and courts were adopting a settlement seeking approach in matrimonial cases rather than a sharply adversarial one and the complementary roles of solicitors and conciliators gave rise to dilemmas in practice as well as offering potential advantages This book draws a parallel between the work of ACAS in industrial disputes and the similar approach of family conciliation services but points out that there are also major differences It also shows how the experience of conciliation practice gained in other countries throws some useful light on the questions being raised in Britain Research findings from Australia Canada and the United States are used in discussing the future of conciliation in the short and longer term and in looking at the possible development of alternative methods of resolving disputes The Long Sexual Revolution Hera Cook,2004-02-05 In this book Hera Cook traces the path of sexuality in England and shows how its route was determined by the gradual exertion of control over fertility Most sexual activity had major economic and social costs the most fundamental of which was the physical cost of children upon women s bodies Around 1800 birth rates reached historical heights Using a combination of demographic and qualitative sources Dr Cook examines the connection between the struggle to lower fertility and the increasing repression of sexuality throughout the nineteenth century Contraception became a viable option in the early twentieth century The book charts the resulting slow relaxation of attitudes to sexuality and the remaking of heterosexual physical behaviour culminating in the sexual revolution of the 1960s The Role of Religion in Marriage and Family Counseling Jill Duba Onedera,2007-07-19 Religion can play a vital role in the way people relate to each other particularly with interpersonal dynamics within a family The role of a couple or family s religion s in the counseling room is no less important This book provides practitioners with an overview of the principles of the major world religions with specific focus on how each religion can influence family dynamics and how best to incorporate this knowledge into effective practice with clients Handbook of Counselling Psychology Ray Woolfe,Windy Dryden,Sheelagh Strawbridge,2003-04-03 Counselling advice services Training and Training Standards Douglas Hooper,Philippa Weitz,2018-12-07 The surge of interest in psychological therapies in GP settings makes this book timely and important for the development of this field in the 21st century As well as the suggested syllabus for training counsellors and psychotherapists agreed by the Counselling and Psychotherapy Forum for Primary Care the book deals with much wider issues Chapters deal with practitioner issues both student and professional management issues and the provision of supervision and mentoring for the new counsellor as well as planning Continuous Professional Development Chapters dealing with the history of the remarkable rise in these services help set the context of the rapid development of primary care counselling The term primary care counselling denotes the context of primary care within which psychological therapies take place and encompasses practitioners from a wide variety of therapeutic traditions The emphasis throughout is on thorough going preparation of the new counsellor therapist to meet the proper counselling standards required in primary care practice It will be of value to students course providers counselling practice managers supervisors as well as those who commission services and general practice doctors
