The Mirror A History:

The Mirror Sabine Melchior-Bonnet, 2001 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Mirror: A History Sabine Melchior-Bonnet, 2001 The Mirror Sabine Melchior-Bonnet, 2002 The Mirror Sabine Melchoir-Bonnet, 2014-06-03 This engaging and witty cultural history traces the evolution of the mirror from antiquity to the present day illustrating its journey from wondrous object to ordinary trinket With its earliest invention the mirror allowed us to gaze upon ourselves bestowing a power both fascinating and terrifying The Mirror Makers Stephen R. Fox, 1984 Stephen Fox explores the consistently cyclical nature of advertising from its beginning A substantial new introduction updates this lively anecdotal history of advertising into the mid 1990s Publisher Mirror Mirror Mark Pendergrast, 2008-08 The fascinating story of the mirror s invention refinement and use in a range of human activities from the bloodthirsty smoking gods of the Aztecs to the fantastic mirrored rooms wealthy Romans created for their orgies to the mirror s role in gathering light from the far reaches of the universe Tells of the 2 500 year mystery of whether Archimedes and his burning mirror really set fire to Roman ships Isaac Newton s intense experiments with sunlight on mirrors that left him blind for 3 days Renaissance artists who used mirrors to revolutionize realistic representations of the world and George Hale and George Ritchey who joined forces to produce ever larger telescope mirrors Illustrations A History of Magic and Experimental Science: The first thirteen centuries of our era Lynn Thorndike, 1923 A history of science and magic spanning the period from early Christianity through early modern Europe to the end of the 17th century Key Metaphors for History Javier Fernández-Sebastián, 2024-04-03 This book casts a fresh look at what to date has been a relatively unexplored question the enormous value and usefulness of the metaphor in the understanding and writing of history and at the historical culture reflected by these metaphors Mapping a wide range of tropes present in historiography and public discourse the book identifies some of the key metaphorical resources employed by historians politicians and journalists to represent time history memory the past the present and the future and examines a selection of analytical concepts of a temporal nature built upon unmistakeably metaphorical foundations such as modernity event process revolution crisis progress decline or transition The analysis of these and other pillars on which modern history has been built whether as a philosophy of history as an academic discipline or as a set of events will interest graduates and scholars dealing with the historical and social sciences and the humanities in general Key Metaphors for History offers a broad overview of historiography and historiosophy from an unfrequented point of view halfway between conceptual history theory of history and metaphorology Moreover it constitutes a form of self reflection of the historian on his or her own positionality when researching and writing history The Mirror and the Mind Katja Guenther, 2024-11-26 How the classic mirror test served as a portal for scientists to explore questions of self awareness Since the late eighteenth century scientists have placed subjects humans infants animals and robots in front of mirrors in order to look for signs of self recognition Mirrors served as the possible means for answering the question What makes us human In The Mirror and the Mind Katja Guenther traces the history of the mirror self recognition test exploring how researchers from a range of disciplines psychoanalysis psychiatry developmental and animal psychology cybernetics anthropology and neuroscience came to read the peculiar behaviors elicited by mirrors Investigating the ways mirrors could lead to both identification and misidentification Guenther looks at how such experiments ultimately failed to determine human specificity The mirror test was thrust into the limelight when Charles Darwin challenged the idea that language sets humans apart Thereafter the mirror previously a recurrent if marginal scientific tool became dominant in attempts to demarcate humans from other animals But because researchers could not rely on language to determine what their nonspeaking subjects were experiencing they had to come up with significant innovations including notation strategies testing protocols and the linking of scientific theories across disciplines From the robotic tortoises of Grey Walter and the mark test of Beulah Amsterdam and Gordon Gallup to anorexia research and mirror neurons the mirror test offers a window into the emergence of such fields as biology psychology psychiatry animal studies cognitive science and neuroscience The Mirror and the Mind offers an intriguing history of experiments in self awareness and the advancements of the human sciences across more than a century

History Made, History Imagined David Walter Price,1999 In this provocative and original study David Price investigates history as a form of poesis the act of making in language and suggests that certain novels can provide the best means of engaging in historical interpretation Contending that the fundamental act of narration itself including the narration of history expresses a system of values Price explores the work of seven contemporary novelists who share a commitment to reexamining history as idea and a refusal to accept history as given Within a theoretical framework based on Friedrich Nietzsche and Giambattista Vico Price investigates how these writers Carlos Fuentes Susan Daitch Salman Rushdie Michel Tournier Ishmael Reed Graham Swift and Mario Vargas Llosa create a discursive space between history and literature a space within which history can be questioned and the making of history explored Through their novels these writers replace the univocal expression of history as a description of what really happened with a polyvocality of competing discourses languages and points of view Price's investigation of three modalities of the poietic novel the history of forgotten possibilities the construction of countermemory and cultural critique and history as myth has far reaching implications for how we read and question the narratives we understand as history By treating the past as a dynamic flow of values rather than a fixed collection of facts History Made History Imagined fosters a deeper understanding not only of literature and philosophy but also of history and our relationship to it
