Stone,1984-01-01 This volume describes that part of the rich literary production of ancient Judaism which was not contained in the Hebrew Bible nor in rabbinic literature These writings originated in the Second Temple period which proved highly creative in the midst of strong external influences and internal movements Prime example are the Dead Sea Scrolls documents of an extremely separatist sect Their discovery in 1947 revolutionized our understanding of Second Temple Judaism and its literature The scrolls appear more or less related in spirit to a group of writings transmitted by Christianity and known as the Pseudepigrapha Yet another group are the Apocrypha closely related to later biblical writings and incorporated within the Greek Old Testament Finally the encounter with Greek culture is documented by Jewish authors writing in Greek notably Philo and Josephus After a historical outline which sets the stage the chapters of this book describe and analyse these documents Selective bibliographies for further reading conclude the chapters
