these are classic revolutionary writings by four famous rebels including The Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels Reform or Revolution by Rosa Luxemburg and Che Guevara s Socialism and Man in Cuba Includes an introduction by Cuban Marxist intellectual Armando Hart and a preface by US radical poet Adrienne Rich The essays in this book Manifesto were written by three relatively young people Karl Marx when he was 30 Rosa Luxemburg at 27 Che Guevara at the age of 37 Born into different historical moments and different generations they shared an energy of hope an engagement with history a belief that critical thinking must inform action and a passion for the world and its human possibilities Here are urgent conversations from the past that are still being carried on among new voices throughout the world Cycle World Magazine ,2005-01 Batanga ,2006 In Defense of Lost Causes Slavoj Žižek,2009-10-19 No Marketing Blurb Motion Picture Almanac ,2006 In Defense of Lost Causes Slavoj Zizek,2009-10-19 The renowned philosophical sharpshooter looks for the kernel of truth in the fascist politics of the past offering an adrenaline fueled manifesto for universal values Is global emancipation a lost cause Are universal values outdated relics of an earlier age In fear of the horrors of totalitarianism should we submit ourselves to a miserable third way of economic liberalism and government as administration In this combative major work philosophical sharpshooter Slavoj i ek takes on the reigning ideology with a plea that we should re appropriate several lost causes and look for the kernel of truth in the totalitarian politics of the past Examining Heidegger s seduction by fascism and Foucault s flirtation with the Iranian Revolution he suggests that these were the right steps in the wrong direction He argues that while the revolutionary terror of Robespierre Mao and the Bolsheviks ended in historic failure and monstrosity this is not the whole story There is in fact a redemptive moment that gets lost in the outright liberal democratic rejection of revolutionary authoritarianism and the valorization of soft consensual decentralized politics i ek claims that particularly in light of the forthcoming ecological crisis we should reinvent revolutionary terror and the dictatorship of the proletariat in the struggle for universal emancipation We need to courageously accept the return to this Cause even if we court the risk of a catastrophic disaster In the words of Samuel Beckett Try again Fail again Fail better New York ,2004-10 Of the Students, By the Students, and For the Students Martin Wolff,2010-10-12 Annually China produces more than 5 million college graduates who have been compelled to study English as a foreign language for 10 to 17 years but graduate functionally illiterate unable to produce comprehensible oral or written English English is taught as a subject required to pass tests and not as a communicative language The problems are identified confirmed by post graduate students and solutions are presented The development and success of a remedial program designed for the collegiate level Holistic English is well documented by the students at top tier and second tier universities as well as 3rd tier and vocational colleges in seven Provinces of China This is a compelling story of a 30 year old failed program that reminds us of Albert Einstein s definition of insanity Doing the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result Cinemachismo Sergio de la Mora,2006-06-01 After the modern Mexican state came into being following the Revolution of 1910 hyper masculine machismo came to be a defining characteristic of mexicanidad or Mexican national identity Virile men pelados and charros virtuous prostitutes as mother figures and minstrel like gay men were held out as desired and or abject models not only in governmental rhetoric and propaganda but also in literature and popular culture particularly in the cinema Indeed cinema provided an especially effective staging ground for the construction of a gendered and sexualized national identity In this book Sergio de la Mora offers the first extended analysis of how Mexican cinema has represented masculinities and sexualities and their relationship to national identity from 1950 to 2004 He focuses on three traditional genres the revolutionary melodrama the cabaretera dancehall prostitution melodrama and the musical comedy buddy movie and one subgenre the fichera brothel cabaret comedy of classic and contemporary cinema By concentrating on the changing conventions of these genres de la Mora reveals how Mexican films have both supported and subverted traditional heterosexual norms of Mexican national identity In particular his analyses of Mexican cinematic icons Pedro Infante and Gael Garc a Bernal and of Arturo Ripstein s cult film El lugar sin l mites illuminate cinema s role in fostering distinct figurations of masculinity queer spectatorship and gay male representations De la Mora completes this exciting interdisciplinary study with an in depth look at how the Mexican state brought about structural changes in the film industry between 1989 and 1994 through the work of the Mexican Film Institute IMCINE paving the way for a renaissance in the national cinema

People's War Thomas A Marks, Paul Rich, 2019-12-18 Far from being an anachronism much less a kit bag of techniques people s war raises what has always been present in military history irregular warfare and fuses it symbiotically with what has likewise always been present politically rebellion and the effort to seize power The result is a strategic approach for waging revolutionary warfare the effort to make a revolution Voluntarism is wedded to the exploitation of structural contradiction through the building of a new world to challenge the existing world through formation of a counterstate within the state in order ultimately to destroy and supplant the latter This is a process of far greater moment than implied by the label guerrilla warfare so often applied to what Mao and others were about This volume deals with the continuing importance of Maoist and post Maoist concepts of people s war Drawing on a range of examples that include Peru Colombia Bolivia the Caucasus and Afghanistan the collection shows that the study of people s war is not just an historical curiosity but vital to the understanding of contemporary insurgent and terrorist movements The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Small Wars Insurgencies

If.... Paul Sutton, 2005-08-26 Lindsay Anderson s 1968 masterpiece If deals fundamentally and controversially with England and quintessential Englishness Coming six years after Anderson s double Oscar nominated debut feature This Sporting Life If was the first film ever with a British setting and cast to win the Palme d Or for Best Film at Cannes The fruit of Anderson s first hand studies of the Czech Polish and Indian New Waves led by Milos Forman Andrzej Wajda and most famously Satyajit Ray it prophesied and then mirrored an international outbreak of youthful rebellion An authority on Lindsay Anderson and his films Sutton here draws on massive quantities of original material Anderson's private archive which illuminates the film's autobiographical elements the original script Crusaders the sequel on which he was working at the time of his death interviews with key members of cast and crew including lead Malcolm McDowell all are here explored to unravel the mysteries of a film which continues to delight enrage and inspire
