The Multifaith Movement Global Risks And Cosmopolitan Solutions:

The Multifaith Movement: Global Risks and Cosmopolitan Solutions Anna Halafoff, 2012-10-29 This book documents the ultramodern rise of the multifaith movement as multifaith initiatives have been increasingly deployed as cosmopolitan solutions to counter global risks such as terrorism and climate change at the turn of the 21st century These projects aim to enhance common security particularly in Western societies following the events of September 11 2001 and the July 2005 London bombings where multifaith engagement has been promoted as a strategy to counter violent extremism The author draws on interviews with 56 leading figures in the field of multifaith relations including Paul Knitter Eboo Patel Marcus Braybrooke Katherine Marshall John Voll and Krista Tippett Identifying the principle aims of the multifaith movement the analysis explores the benefits and challenges of multifaith engagement as well as the effectiveness of multifaith initiatives in countering the process of radicalization Building on notions of cosmopolitanism the work proposes a new theoretical framework termed Netpeace which recognizes the interconnectedness of global problems and their solutions In doing so it acknowledges the capacity of multi actor peacebuilding networks including religious and state actors to address the pressing dilemmas of our times The primary intention of the book is to assist in the formation of new models of activism and governance founded on a politics of understanding modeled by the multifaith movement

Religious Diversity in Australia Douglas Ezzy, Anna Halafoff, Greg Barton, Rebecca Banham, 2024-03-07 This book documents the structure of religious diversity in Australia and examines this diversity in the context of the law migration education policing the media and interfaith communities Focusing on Melbourne and Tasmania it articulates the benefits and opportunities of diversity alongside the challenges that confront religious and ethnic minorities including discrimination and structural inequalities generated by Christian and other forms of privilege It articulates constructive strategies that are deployed including encouraging forms of belonging structured ways of negotiating disagreement and respectful engagement with difference While scholars across the West are increasingly attuned to the problems and promises of growing religious diversity in a global age in depth empirical research on the consequences of that diversity in Australia is lacking This book provides a rich well researched and timely intervention

Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22 Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historico sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi Interfaith Networks and Development Ezra Chitando,Ishanesu Sextus Gusha,2022-03-15 Although there is growing interest in the role of religion in meeting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Agenda 2030 very few studies have focused on the contributions of interfaith networks Most of the contemporary publications on religion and development focus on single religions or faith based organizations This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how interfaith networks in diverse African contexts contribute to development Chapters in this volume engage in theoretical debates on interfaith networks and development while describing concrete fresh case studies on how particular interfaith networks are contributing towards the meeting of the SDGs in specific contexts Thus the volume describes older and newer interfaith networks and analyses their achievements and challenges Contributors focus on SDGs that include peacebuilding gender youth the environment as well as overviews of interfaith initiatives in different African contexts The Oxford History of Anglicanism, Volume V William L.

Sachs,2017-12-15 The Oxford History of Anglicanism provides a global study of Anglicanism from the sixteenth century to the twenty first The five volumes in the series look at how Anglican identity was constructed and contested since the English Reformation of the sixteenth century and examine its historical influence during the past six centuries They consider not only the ecclesiastical and theological aspects of global Anglicanism but also the political social economic and cultural influences of this form of Christianity that has been historically significant in Western culture and a burgeoning force in non Western societies since the nineteenth century Written by international experts in their various historical fields each volumes analyses the varieties of Anglicanism that have emerged The series also highlights the formal political institutional and ecclesiastical forces that have shaped a global Anglicanism and the interaction of Anglicanism with informal and external influences which have both moulded Anglicanism and been fashioned by it Volume five of The Oxford History of Anglicanism considers the global experience of the Church of England in mission and in the transitions of its mission Churches towards autonomy in the twentieth century The Church developed institutionally yet more than the institutional history of the Church of England and its spheres of influence is probed The contributors focus on what it has meant to be Anglican in diverse contexts What spread from England was not simply a religious institution but the religious tradition it intended to implant The volume addresses questions of the conduct of mission its intended and unintended consequences It offers important insights on what decolonization meant for Anglicans as the mission Church in various global locations became self reliant This study breaks new ground in describing the emergence of an Anglicanism shaped more contextually than externally It illustrates how Anglicanism became enculturated across a broad swath of cultural contexts The influence of context and the challenge of adaption to it framed Anglicanism s twentieth century experience

Education about Religions and Worldviews Anna Halafoff, Elisabeth Arweck, Donald Boisvert, 2018-02-02 This volume presents the findings of a number of empirical and theoretical studies on education about religions and worldviews ERW conducted in the Western societies of Britain Ireland Canada Norway Finland New Zealand Australia and Canada Educational programmes about diverse religions and worldviews began to be investigated and implemented as strategies to encourage interreligious understanding and social cohesion particularly following the 2005 London bombings when a fear of youth radicalisation and home grown terrorism became prevalent In addition as a growing number of people in Western societies and young people especially declare themselves to have no religious affiliation state actors are currently grappling with the reality that we are living in increasingly multifaith and non religious societies and government education systems have become places of contestation as a result of these changes This volume examines ERW research and policies in a number of diverse places in the hope of identifying common themes overlapping insights and best practices that can inform research and policy for religious literacy and interreligious understanding in other contexts This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intercultural Studies
