The Muslim Entrepreneur The Muslim Entrepreneur Series 1:

Entrepreneurship in the Informal Economy Mai Thi Thanh Thai, Ekaterina Turkina, 2013 Although entrepreneurship in the informal economy occurs outside state regulatory systems informal commercial activities account for an estimated 30% of economic activity around the world Informal entrepreneurship goes unmonitored despite the fact that it significantly contributes to poverty reduction and economic development As a result the informal sector is open to unethical practices including corruption worker exploitation and natural environment abuse to name just a few In the media debates have formed around whether informal entrepreneurship should be assisted or legitimized Hence a deep understanding of the phenomenon is vitally important This book is the first on the market to offer models and approaches to informal entrepreneurship as well as to its prospects for economic development Offering an in depth examination of informal entrepreneurship in many different countries it reveals the motivations for engaging in entrepreneurship in the informal economy characteristics of informal entrepreneurship and informal entrepreneurs response to ethical issues This volume illustrates the relationship between formal and informal economies and the conditions for the benefits of informal entrepreneurship to outweigh its disadvantages And finally it gives recommendations about when and how the informal economy can be formalized which sectors should be formalized and which ones can remain informal This book offers much needed guidance for stakeholders involved in economic development programs and scholars and entrepreneurs interested in the field of informal entrepreneurship as it is developing around the globe

Understanding the Relationship Between Religion and Entrepreneurship Tamzini, Khaled, Salem, Anis Ben, 2019-11-22 In recent years a number of scholars trained in the area of economics have begun to pay attention to a fascinating and increasingly important question Does the interrelationship between religion and enterprise shape entrepreneurial decision making Though religious groups can provide additional means for the generation of social capital especially where ethnicity is strongly associated with specific religious adherence it has been largely absent in economic discussions Understanding the Relationship Between Religion and Entrepreneurship is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of religious theology on entrepreneurial decision making While highlighting topics including women in business religious marketing and consumer behavior this book is ideally designed for entrepreneurs theologists business managers policymakers researchers industry professionals academician and students seeking current research on the economic impacts of religious beliefs and practices

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China s Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state s triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government s concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong s growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state s aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies

Entrepreneurship Stefan Kwiatkowski, 2017-07-28 Entrepreneurship is the capability to be an entrepreneur Beyond that idea is an ideology that a person s business actions result in industrial growth or technical advances making that person a leader in the economic world The contributors to this latest volume in the Praxiology Series now available in paperback are united in claiming that resourcefulness is a characteristic of people who take effective action and that effectiveness is dependent on good ethical purposes The wide angle definition of entrepreneurship presented in this volume demands that people and organizations engage in more than simple self interest but also display awareness of the prospects for wider growth and advances resulting from their decisions In a period of financial crisis caused by irresponsible behavior by eminent would be entrepreneurs the significance of this perspective should be evident The editors claim that growth not stagnation advantage not decline are irreversible traits of business activity This is why the very concept of entrepreneurship calls for values and responsibility even more than in the past The contributors develop the idea of entrepreneurship from both theoretical approaches religious and practical or applied perspectives This inter and multidisciplinary approach offers readers a chance to rebuild trust in entrepreneurship

Léo-Paul Dana, 2010-01-01 I wish this book had been around when I tried to teach about entrepreneurship in its social context life would have been much easier with these informed sources Alistair R Anderson Aberdeen Business School UK This rich and detailed book makes a very timely contribution to extending our understanding of entrepreneurship in its social context Using selected examples the respected contributors show how the values developed in religious beliefs and practices shape entrepreneurship For too long the entrepreneur has been characterized as an isolated economically driven individual thus ignoring how enterprise and entrepreneurs are products of their society their culture and their religion This innovative book discusses both entrepreneurship and religion as well as indicating how the synthesis of beliefs and practices combine in entrepreneurial endeavours. It provides a conceptually useful way of framing the individualistic entrepreneur in his or her social and cultural context, demonstrating how entrepreneurial agency operates within and through a variety of religious contexts. Illustrated with original photographs, this captivating book will be warmly welcomed by students and researchers with interests in entrepreneurship, sociology, religion, and cultural studies. Government policy makers in immigration will also find this book an invaluable read.

Muslim Piety as Economy Johan Fischer, Jérémy Jammes, 2019-10-11. The first volume to explore Muslim piety as a form of economy, this book examines specific forms of production, trade, regulation, consumption, entrepreneurship, and science that condition and are themselves conditioned by Islamic values, logics, and politics. With a focus on Southeast Asia as a site of significant and diverse integration of Islam and the economy, as well as the incompatibilities that can occur between the two, it reveals the production of a Muslim piety as an economy in its own right. Interdisciplinary in nature and based on in-depth empirical studies, the book considers issues such as the Qur'anic prohibition of corruption and anti-corruption reforms, the emergence of the Islamic economy under colonialism, halal or lawful production, trade regulation, and consumption, modesty in Islamic fashion, marketing, communications, and financialisation, consumerism, and housing. As such, it will appeal to scholars of sociology, anthropology, and religious studies with interests in Islam and Southeast Asia Artisan Entrepreneurship Vanessa Ratten,Paul Jones,Vitor Braga,Eduardo Parra-López,2022-01-26 Artisan Entrepreneurship analyses handicraft enterprise using different approaches at an individual group and societal point of view providing a better understanding about how these workers contribute to societal wellbeing and aid cultural heritage preservation for future generations Entrepreneurship in the Arab World Haya Al-Dajani,Bettina Lynda Bastian,Poh Yen Ng,Bronwyn P Wood,2025-10-15 Entrepreneurship in the Arab World is a pioneering academic reader and research companion offering an in depth exploration of entrepreneurship in the Arab world Edited by leading scholars with deep regional expertise the book addresses the cultural institutional religious and socio economic dynamics shaping entrepreneurial activity in Arab countries With contributions from local and international experts the book provides a rich contextualized analysis across a broad spectrum of topics including women s entrepreneurship youth entrepreneurship social innovation family enterprises digital entrepreneurship green entrepreneurship Islam and entrepreneurship and more This book is designed for university students educators researchers business support agencies international aid agencies and policy makers working in or focused on supporting entrepreneurship in the Arab world Its structured chapters include case studies key learning points and discussion questions to enhance teaching and learning The book fills a critical gap in contextualized entrepreneurship education resources by offering a tailored region specific deep dive It promotes culturally relevant learning provides practical insights for students and practitioners and offers policy recommendations for fostering inclusive and sustainable entrepreneurship This essential text will support the growing regional movement towards economic diversification and youth empowerment and serve as a benchmark for future research and pedagogy in Arab entrepreneurship studies International Encyclopedia of Business Management ,2025-09-01 The Encyclopedia of Business Management Four Volume Set is a comprehensive resource that covers over 200 topics across various areas of business management Each entry is written in an accessible manner making complex concepts easy to understand The encyclopedia addresses interdisciplinary subjects such as cultural entrepreneurship tourism innovation and marketing promotions By emphasizing definitions and practical applications the entries help readers grasp the relevance of each topic Expert editors lead each section ensuring that the contributions are authoritative and well rounded The encyclopedia is divided into seven broad themes including business entrepreneurship human resource management innovation management international business organizational behavior project management supply chain management and sport and tourism management Each section s articles begin with a technical analysis of key definitional issues followed by an exploration of the topic s broader context This structured approach provides a holistic examination of the subjects allowing readers to gain a comprehensive understanding of vital business management concepts Provides a comprehensive overview of the main business management topics Focuses specifically on business management from a range of perspectives Includes new and emerging business management topics Presents an interdisciplinary focus in
