who we are and who we become These questions should be central to the study of mind and development but most researchers neglect relationships and focus instead on analyses of individuals as if people were basically alone experiencing occasional fleeting moments with other people Research based on this individualist assumption has dominated the behavioral and clinical sciences but there are other voices and they are growing In this book many of the scholars who are moving relationships and attachments back to the center of human development outline their central concepts findings and perspectives People are fundamentally social and relationships are part of the fabric of being human forming an essential foundation that molds each person's mind and action A mind does not reside in one person but in relationships and communities composed of many people's interconnected minds which mutually support and define each other From the start and throughout life each person develops strengths and vulnerabilities in important relationships in communities and cultures Those relationships are so central to each person's activity and experience that without them no scientific explanation can even begin to analyze mind and action There is no mind without other people There is no psychological vulnerability that does not involve others The contributors to this book aim to establish a firm foundation for the role of relationships in human activity and health and to promote strong research by bringing together in one place most of the best research and theory on development and relationships Their goal is to stimulate a more radical inclusion of relationships in mind an ecological focus on the ways that relationships constitute action feeling and thought Bulletins, Binders ,1919

The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street Susan Jane Gilman,2014-06-10 A clever and complex woman builds an ice cream empire after immigrating from Russia in this stunning novel of power Prohibition and performance set against the backdrop of early 20th century America In 1913 little Malka Treynovsky flees Russia with her family Bedazzled by tales of gold and movie stardom she tricks them into buying tickets for America Yet no sooner do they land on the squalid Lower East Side of Manhattan than Malka is crippled and abandoned in the street Taken in by a tough loving Italian ices peddler she manages to survive through cunning and inventiveness As she learns the secrets of his trade she begins to shape her own destiny She falls in love with a gorgeous illiterate radical named Albert and they set off across America in an ice cream truck Slowly she transforms herself into Lillian Dunkle The Ice Cream Queen doyenne of an empire of ice cream franchises and a celebrated television personality Lillian's rise to fame and fortune spans seventy years and is inextricably linked to the course of American history itself from Prohibition to the disco days of Studio 54 Yet Lillian Dunkle is nothing like the whimsical motherly persona she crafts for herself in the media Conniving profane and irreverent she is a supremely complex woman who prefers a good stiff drink to an ice cream cone And when her past begins to catch up with her everything she has spent her life building is at stake Investigation of Communist Activities in the Ohio Area (testimony of Keve Bray)
