Colonial Office,Great Britain. Commonwealth Office,1947 The Turks in the Early Islamic World C. Edmund Bosworth,2017-05-15 This volume brings together a set of key articles along with a new introduction to contextualize them on the role of Turkish peoples in the Western Asiatic world up to the 11th century Such topics as the geographical and environmental original milieux of these peoples in the forest zone and steppelands of Inner Asia the formation and breakup of tribal confederations within the steppes and the evolution of tribal structures are examined as the background for the appearance of Turks within the Islamic caliphate from the 9th century onwards These came first as military slaves then as movements of peoples such as the tribal migrations of the Oghuz leading to the establishment of the Seljuq sultanate whilst from within Islamic society individual Turkish commanders were able at the same time to build up their own military empires such as that of the Ghaznavids In this way was put in place a Turkish dominance of the northern tier of the Middle East with attendant changes in demography and land utilisation which was to last for centuries The Spectator, 1917 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Gesta Tancredi of Ralph of Caen Bernard S Bachrach, David S. Bachrach, 2017-03-02 This is the first translation into English of Ralph of Caen's Gesta Tancredi This text provides an exceptionally important narrative of the First Crusade and its immediate aftermath covering the period 1096-1105 but is often neglected due in no small part to the difficulties of its Latin A native of the Norman city of Caen where he was a student of Arnulf the future patriarch of Jerusalem in 1107 Ralph joined Bohemond of Taranto's army as a military chaplain After arriving in the East Ralph took service with Bohemond's nephew Tancred who ruled the principality of Antioch from 1108 to 1112 Although dedicated to Arnulf the Gesta Tancredi focuses on the careers of Bohemond and especially of Tancred It is one of the most important sources indeed the most important Latin source for the Norman campaigns in Cilicia 1097-1108 and for the early Norman rule of Antioch The work as a whole has a striking Norman point of view and contains details found in no other source providing a corrective to the strong northern focus of most of the other narrative sources for the First Crusade Perspectives on theology of religions Jaco Beyers, Piet J. van der Merwe, Wilhelmina Magdalena Shaw, Ronald Allen Baatsen, Johannes Janse van Rensburg, Tessa Freeman, 2017-11-23 In the public theology discourse the concept public square has become significant In today's multicultural and globalised world it is inevitable that people with different religious affiliations will encounter one another in the public square Public theology cannot but become theology of religions Scholars in the field of religion studies are compelled to reflect theologically on the relevance of religiosity in the postmodern secular world The term theology of religions refers to the academic inquiry into the relationship between religions The collected essays constitute such an inquiry In the end it is not so much about the encounter of religions but rather of people Religion is no longer regarded as a monolithic body of beliefs and practices The authors concede that the concept religion is too fluid to be delineated precisely The book's approach to the relationship between religions i.e. theology of religions reflects how the authors understand the origin and nature of religion a theology of religion in the singular This book focuses more on theology of religions plural than on theology of religion singular The main objective of the book is to present a variety of perspectives on how theology of religions manifested in different contexts This includes historical i.e. Luther's theology of religions and the Roman Catholic position on other religions as taken by Vatican II as well as cultural and religious perspectives In the first chapter the editor gives a brief overview of the development of the discipline of theology of religions The postmodern era is characterised by an almost non-foundational approach The second chapter traces the development of the discipline in the Roman Catholic tradition in particular This contribution is based on the insights of P. J. van der Merwe 1944-2014 who as researcher and Head of the Department of Science of Religion and Missiology at the University of Pretoria developed a specific theological position on non-Christian religions A whole generation of theologians was trained in this school of thought He passed away in 2014 and this publication pays tribute to his life's work on religions and their relations The contributions that follow are the culmination of the research of postgraduate students at the University of Pretoria The third chapter presents a perspective on the Reformation with a particular focus on Martin Luther In this year of the quincentenary anniversary of the Reformation the legacy of Reformed belief is highlighted The fourth chapter describes the relationship between Christianity and Islam from the perspective of a willingness to embrace The fifth chapter analyses the relation between Christianity Judaism and Islam from the perspective of intergroup threat theory A model for theology of religions in a South African context is developed in the sixth and final chapter This scholarly book pays tribute to the academic contribution of P J van der Merwe mentor of the authors of these multifaceted reflections on theology of religions The target audience is specialists in the field of religion studies The distinctive contribution of the book is the innovative perspectives on the relationship between Islam and Christianity in both the Roman Catholic and Protestant contexts Hospital Corps Quarterly, 1923 Turkic Lars Johanson, 2021-08-26 Turkic is one of the world's major language families comprising a high number of distinct languages and varieties that display remarkable similarities and notable differences Written by a leading expert in the field this landmark work provides an unrivalled overview of multiple features of Turkic covering structural functional historical sociolinguistic and literary aspects It presents the history and cultures of the speakers structures and use of the whole set of languages within the family including Turkish Azeri Turkmen Tatar Kazakh Uzbek and Uyghur and gives a comprehensive overview of published works on Turkic languages large and small It also provides an innovative theoretical framework employing a unified terminology and transcription to give new insights into the Turkic linguistic type Requiring no previous knowledge of the Turkic languages it will be welcomed by both general readers as well as academic researchers and students of linguistic typology comparative linguistics and Turkic studies A turkish and english Lexicon shewing in english the significations of the turkish terms James W.
