Unruly Media Carol Vernallis, 2013-11 Unruly Media argues that we are the crest of a new international style in which sonic and visual parameters become heightened and accelerated This audiovisual turn calls for new forms of attention Post classical cinema with its multi plot narratives and flashy style fragments under the influence of audiovisual numbers and music video like sync Music video becomes more than a way of selling songs YouTube s brief low res clips encompass many forms and foreground reiteration graphic values and affective intensity These three media are riven by one another a trajectory from YouTube through music video to the new digital cinema reveals commonalities especially in the realms of rhythm texture and form This is the first book to account for the current audiovisual landscape across medium and platform and it demonstrates that attending equally to soundtrack and image reveals how these media work and how they both mirror and shape our experience

Sound Design is the New Score Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2020 The practice of blurring the line between score and sound design has transformed contemporary film soundscape by challenging not only the long established hierarchical relationships between dialogue music and sound effects but also the modes of perception shaped by classical soundtrack practices The methods of this new trend rely on the language of contemporary popular and art music producing soundtracks in which it is difficult to tell the difference between score and ambient sound where pieces of electroacoustic music are merged with diegetic sound sound effects are absorbed into the score or treated as music and diegetic sound is treated as musique concrète In Sound Design is the New Score Kulezic Wilson explores theoretical aesthetic and sensuous dimensions of this new trend providing a multifaceted portrait of a practice which recognizes the interconnectedness of all soundtrack elements and emphasizes their inherent musicality The aesthetic concerns of this practice are illuminated through the concept of the aesthetics of reticence which rejects classical narrative and scoring conventions and uses integrated soundtrack strategies to create the space for mystery in art and for individuality in the cinematic experience The book s emphasis on sensuous and musical aspects of this practice informed by the feminist discourse on the erotics of art challenges popular notions about sensory cinema demonstrating that the sensuousness of film form and its soundscapes is more sophisticated than simply being the result of excessive sensory stimulation facilitated by the use of digital technology or the intensified aesthetics it inspires The discussion is supported by a wide range of case studies from American Independent Asian Australian and European cinemas including films by Shane Carruth Claire Denis Hou Hsiao Hsien Harmony Korine David Miché Gus Van Sant and Peter Strickland
