The Palmwine Drinkard English Edition:

The Palm-Wine Drinkard Amos Tutuola, 2014 The Palm Wine Drinkard is the phantasmagorical story of an alcoholic man and his search for his dead wine tapster As he travels through the land of the dead he encounters a host of supernatural and often terrifying beings among them the complete gentleman who returns his body parts to their owners the insatiable hungry creature and his own pyromaniac son Landscaping Postcoloniality. The Dissemination of Cameroon Anglophone Literature Joyce Ashuntantang, 2009 This is a foundational text on the production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature The Republic of Cameroon is a bilingual country with English and French as the official languages Ashuntantang shows that the pattern of production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature is not only framed by the minority status of English and English speaking Cameroonians within the Republic of Cameroon but is also a reflection of a postcolonial reality in Africa where mostly African literary texts published by western multi national corporations are assured wide international accessibility and readership This book establishes that in spite of these setbacks Anglophone Cameroon writers have produced a corpus of work that has enriched the genres of prose poetry and drama and that these texts deserve a wider readership Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza, 2024-01-24 Anticolonial Form Literary Journals at the End of Empire addresses the relationship between culture and politics in two journals published in Europe by African writers Presence Africaine launched in Paris in 1947 and Mensagem published between 1948 and 1964 in Lisbon Grounded in extensive archival work the book argues for a comparative and transnational approach to postcolonial literary studies for the significance of the literary journal as a key form in the development of African writing in French Portuguese and English and for a historically and geographically contingent understanding of the relationships between literature culture and politics This book takes up the idea of articulation to bring forward the contingent and fugitive connections that networks of literary journals fostered between francophone anglophone and lusophone writers in the conjuncture of decolonization in the 1950s and 1960s It argues that comparison as a praxis and a method was central to the anticolonial charge of those journals on whose pages we see an iterative back and forth between writing from and about different parts of the colonial world a recursive effort to establish how ideas and analyses developed in one part of the colonial world could travel and be adopted and adapted in others Many scholars have argued convincingly that the institutionalized practice of comparison in the academic field of comparative literature is itself imbricated with histories of colonialism Reza s argument takes on a particular significance in the context of that critique as the anticolonial comparison on which she focuses offers a different tradition of relational praxis from which to think about connection and comparison itself Five Decades D. S. Rao, 2004 On the completion of fiftieth year of Sahitya Akademi The Palm-Wine Drinkard Amos Tutuola, 2025-06-17 Amos Tutuola s masterful first novel of a nightmarish quest into the land of the dead now available in a standalone volume with an introduction by Wole Soyinka Widely considered to be his masterpiece Amos Tutuola s debut novel The Palm Wine Drinkard was first published in 1952 Named one of TIME s 100 Best Fantasy Books of All Time and introduced here by Wole Soyinka the novel tells the phantasmagorical story of a wealthy alcoholic who drinks 225 kegs of palm wine a day When the man s personal tapster dies and leaves him without any remaining supply of alcohol the man desperately follows the tapster into the nightmarish Dead s Town Drawing on Yoruba folklore and narrated with a unique voice that mixes West African oral traditions with the Colonial British English that Tutuola learned at school The Palm Wine Drinkard is a seminal work of African literature from one of Nigeria s most influential writers and an important part of the global literary canon

Auteuring Nollywood Adeshina Afolayan,2014-12-29 Beginning from an auteur standpoint this book interrogates extant cinematic re presentation of African and Nigerian postcolonial realities in Nollywood It makes a case using Kunle Afolayans The Figurine for a critical space clearing gesture around the notion of a neo Nollywood which transcends the formulaic cinematic re presentation of African and Nigerian realities to embrace a visionary and philosophic rearticulation of the role of filmmaking and of Nollywood in the Nigerian imagination The Idea of neo Nollywood and a visionary director therefore stands at the core of a cinematic production process that challenges disturbs and stimulates perceptions of current and future African identities

Worlds Enough Elaine Freedgood,2019-10-15 A short provocative book that challenges basic assumptions about Victorian fiction Now praised for its realism and formal coherence the Victorian novel was not always great or even good in the eyes of its critics As Elaine Freedgood reveals in Worlds Enough it was only in the late 1970s that literary critics constructed a prestigious version of British realism erasing more than a century of controversy about the value of Victorian fiction Examining criticism of Victorian novels since the 1850s Freedgood demonstrates that while they were praised for their ability to bring certain social truths to fictional life these novels were also criticized for their formal failures and compared unfavorably to their French and German counterparts She analyzes the characteristics of realism denotation omniscience paratext reference and ontology and the politics inherent in them arguing that if critics displaced the nineteenth century realist novel as the standard by which others are judged literary history might be richer It would allow peripheral literatures and the neglected wisdom of their critics to come fully into view She concludes by questioning the aesthetic racism built into prevailing ideas about the centrality of realism in the novel and how those ideas have affected debates about world literature By re examining the critical reception of the Victorian novel Worlds Enough suggests how we can rethink our practices and perceptions about books we think we know Telling Our Tales Jeanette Ross,2002 Included are 38 stories for audiences of all ages with an outline performance tips adaptatoin props etc and ideas on how to create original stories for storytelling Data-Rich Linguistics Oluseye Adesola,Akinbiyi Akinlabi,Olanike Ola Orie,2018-10-09 This collection was compiled by an international group of scholars in recognition of Professor Yiwola Awoyale s contributions to African language and linguistic studies Based at University of Pennsylvania Professor Awoyale is particularly celebrated as a great field linguist who pays special attention to data and data documentation This edited volume presents current research on topics concerning the syntax semantics phonology applied and socio linguistics of African languages providing a state of the art account of contemporary issues in African linguistics today Structural Models and African Poetics Sunday O. Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke, 2025-05-30 This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non Western genre studies of African fiction It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture The book examines important twentieth century precursors of the post millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction SF reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under researched area of Nigerian SF Through these readings the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF including futurism posthumanism horror fantasy and science fiction among others This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism colonialism and imperialism Providing new theoretical tools and concepts this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies African culture and society literature and language interdisciplinary literary studies area studies literary criticism and genre studies
