Mark W Hoock Erika Hartley Terrance J Martin Eric Teixeira Mendes Michael S Nassaney Susan K Reichert The Archaeology of the Royal Flying Corps Melanie Winterton, 2022-10-07 Winterton's book is a good introductory effort on the haptic environment of World War I aviators and their personal artifacts The Journal of the Air Force Historical Foundation Archaeology provides a fascinating insight into the lives of the aviators of the First World War Their descriptions of the sensation of flying in the open cockpits of the primitive warplanes of the day and the artifacts that have survived from these first years of aerial combat give us a powerful sense of what their wartime service was like and chart the beginning of our modern understanding of aviation But the subject hasn't been explored in any depth before which is why Melanie Winterton's pioneering book is so timely Hers is the first study of the trench art souvenirs and lucky mascots associated with the Royal Flying Corps which in an original way tell us so much about the experience of flying on the Western Front a century ago Extensive quotations from the memoirs of these early airmen are combined with an analysis of the artifacts themselves They convey something of the fear and anxiety the airmen had to grapple with on a daily basis and bring out the full significance of the poignant souvenirs they left behind Pieces of crashed aeroplane wooden propellers strips of linen fragments of metal were recycled and circulated during the war and afterwards became the focus of attention in the domestic home As Melanie Winterton demonstrates these items connected the living with the deceased which is why they are so strongly evocative even today Fashioning the Self: Identity and Style in British Culture Emily Priscott, 2023-06-06 Fashioning the Self Identity and Style in British Culture offers an eclectic approach to contemporary fashion studies Taking a broad definition of British culture this collection of essays explores the significance of style to issues such as colonialism race gender and class embracing topics as diverse as eighteenth century portraiture literary dress culture and Edwardian working class glamour Examining the emblematic power of garments themselves and the context in which they are styled this work interrogates the ways that personal style can itself decontextualize garments to radically reframe their meanings Using an intentionally eclectic range of subjects from an interdisciplinary perspective this collection builds on the work of theorists such as Aileen Ribeiro Vika Martina Plock Cheryl Buckley and Hilary Fawcett to examine the social significance of personal style while also highlighting the diversity of British culture itself Material Worlds Barbara J. Heath, Eleanor E. Breen, Lori A. Lee, 2017-02-17 Material Worlds examines consumption from an archaeological perspective broadly exploring the intersection of social relations and objects through the processes of production distribution use reuse and discard Interrogating individual objects as well as considering the contexts in which acts of consumption take place a range of case studies present the intertwined issues of power inequality identity and community as mediated through choice access and use of the diversity of mass produced goods Key themes of this innovative volume include the relationship between colonial political and economic structures and the practices of consumption the use of consumer goods in the construction and negotiation of identity and the dialectic between strategies of consumption and individual or community choices Situating studies of consumerism within the field of historical archaeology this exciting collection reflects on the interrelationship between the material and ideological aspects of culture With a focus on North America from the seventeenth through the early twentieth centuries Material Worlds is an important examination of consumption which will appeal to scholars with interests in colonialism gender and race as well as those engaged with the material culture of the emergent modern world
