Papuans have struggled for more than fifty years to find a way through the long night of Indonesian colonization. However, united in their pursuit of merdeka (freedom) in its many forms, what holds West Papuans together is greater than what divides them. Today, the Morning Star glimmers on the horizon, the supreme symbol of merdeka and a cherished sign of hope for the imminent arrival of peace and justice to West Papua. Morning Star Rising: The Politics of Decolonization in West Papua is an ethnographically framed account of the long, bitter fight for freedom that challenges the dominant international narrative that West Papuans' quest for political independence is fractured and futile. Camellia Webb Gannon's extensive interviews with the decolonization movement's original architects and its more recent champions shed light on complex diasporic and intergenerational politics as well as social and cultural resurgence. In foregrounding West Papuans' perspectives, the author shows that it is the body politic's unflagging determination and hope, rather than military might or influential allies, that form the movement's most unifying and powerful force for independence. This book examines the many intertwining strands of decolonization in Melanesia. Differences in cultural performance and political diversity throughout the region are generating new, fruitful trajectories. Simultaneously, Black and Indigenous solidarity and a shared Melanesian identity have forged a transnational grassroots power base from which the movement is gaining momentum. Relevant beyond its West Papua focus, this book is essential reading for those interested in Pacific studies, Native and Indigenous studies, development studies, activism, and decolonization. The Morning Star Journal Rick Joyner, 1999-09 The Morning Star Andre

Schwarze-Bart, 2011-03-03. Luckily, a few found their way to the stars and into immortality. In the year 3000, nostalgic for the past, they return to earth in an effort to reconstruct the lives of the people who lived there. The Morning Star flows between the poetic, the fantastic, and the realistic as it weaves the tale of the Jewish people from Abraham to the Holocaust and into the future. Two Paths of the Morning Star Michael Lindstrom, 2025-04-03. Two Paths of the Morning Star: Jesus vs Lucifer and the Light of God is a bold and illuminating journey into one of the greatest mysteries ever hidden in plain sight. Why are both Christ and Lucifer called the Morning Star? In this groundbreaking work, author and spiritual teacher Michael unveils the ancient esoteric truth behind the Morning Star, revealing it not as a title of opposition but of origin. Drawing from scripture, mysticism, and spiritual science, this book explores the soul's power of free will, the dual paths of light, and the cosmic choice between union and separation. What if Christ and Lucifer were once the same archetypal light, split by the choice to either return to Source or fall into self-glorification? What if you too carry the Morning Star within? Through rich symbolism and powerful scriptural insight, Two Paths of the Morning Star guides you beyond fear-based religion and into the heart of divine truth. It exposes the spiritual war not as a battle out there but as an inner initiation between ego and Spirit, pride and surrender, the left hand and right hand path of light. This book is not about worshiping darkness; it is about exposing it. It is not about diminishing Christ; it is about understanding His glory more deeply. And it is not about duality; it is about integration, truth, and liberation. You will discover the hidden meaning of Isaiah 14 and Revelation 22. Why Christ and Lucifer both bear the title Morning Star The symbolic fall of light and its redemption through love The spiritual science of light frequency and divine identity The soul s journey through illusion and back to Oneness This is a book for the seekers the mystics the misfits and the chosen Those ready to remember who they truly are divine light born to choose the path of Love The Morning
