The Vultures of Whapeton Robert E. Howard,2014-12-09 This early work by Robert E Howard was originally published in 1936 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography The Vultures of Whapeton is one of Howard s short stories in the western genre Robert Ervin Howard was born in Peaster Texas in 1906 During his youth his family moved between a variety of Texan boomtowns and Howard a bookish and somewhat introverted child was steeped in the violent myths and legends of the Old South At fifteen Howard began to read the pulp magazines of the day and to write more seriously The December 1922 issue of his high school newspaper featured two of his stories Golden Hope Christmas and West is West In 1924 he sold his first piece a short caveman tale titled Spear and Fang for 16 to the not yet famous Weird Tales magazine Howard s most famous character Conan the Cimmerian was a barbarian turned King during the Hyborian Age a mythical period of some 12 000 years ago Conan featured in seventeen Weird Tales stories between 1933 and 1936 which is why Howard is now regarded as having spawned the sword and sorcery genre The Conan stories have since been adapted many times most famously in the series of films starring Arnold Schwarzenegger 75+

 Howard Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn t have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I ve just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state s current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas s most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley s introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca s 1542 Relaci n to the work of today s generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I ve never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who ve been on it It s fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what s there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I ve said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I m repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories short stories out of the things I liked to read Elmer Kelton The Last Celt Glenn Lord,1976 The End of the Trail Robert Ervin Howard,2005 I was born in the little ex cowtown of Peaster Texas Robert E Howard wrote to a friend and the first story he ever published in 1922 was a Western sketch Although he went on to write hundreds of fantasy tales set in Conan s Hyborian kingdoms Kull s ancient Atlantis and Solomon Kane s darkest Africa his heart always remained in the West In 1929 he began publishing Western tales but they were unlike any the genre had ever seen they didn t have happy endings or perfect heroes They were grimmer more action packed even cataclysmically violent Howard was fascinated by outlaws and gunmen especially those who crossed over to become lawmen and he knew and interviewed many old timers old law officers trail drivers cattlemen buffalo hunters and pioneers The twelve stories collected here show a West stripped down to essentials where internalized codes of personal honor loyalty and courage matter more than laws progress or civilization Also included are four articles suggestive of his wide ranging interests from Billy the Kid to the eerie and unexplained happenings on the frontier To me the annals of the land pulse with blood and life Howard wrote and his Western stories are full of memorable characters heart pounding action and the distinctive prose generations of fans have come to know and expect and appreciate Science Fiction and Fantasy Authors L.
