

THE PASTOR'S MANUAL

for Premarital Counseling

This book, an official publication of The Methodist Church, offers pastors assistance in their important task of helping couples get ready for marriage. While it contains practical suggestions that any minister will find useful, it is planned specifically as a companion to the Holy Matrimony, the official marriage manual for engaged couples.

The opening chapters of this pastor's manual cover what premarital counseling is and what the essentials of a good pastoral counselor are. Then follow four chapters dealing with actual interviews with the engaged couples—interviews that cover such subjects as readiness for marriage, plans for married life, the meaning of the marriage ceremony, and details of the wedding plans. These chapters are closely correlated with the related chapters in the couples' manual.
