

THE MEMORY SPHERE

A woman with dark hair is shown in profile, looking down at a large, transparent sphere she is holding in her hands. Inside the sphere, there is a swirling pattern of blue and gold, resembling a nebula or a memory. The background is a warm, dimly lit room with a glowing orb in a square frame on the wall. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and nostalgic.

Beyond Collective

Memory Cullen Goldblatt, 2020-09-14 Beyond Collective Memory analyzes how two African places became icons of collective memory for certain publics yet remain marginal to national and continental memory discourses Thiaroye a Senegalese location of colonial era massacre and District Six a South African neighborhood destroyed under apartheid have epitomized a shared memory of racist violence and resistant community Analyzing diverse cultural texts surrounding both places this book argues that the metaphor of collective memory has obscured the structural character of colonial and apartheid violence and made it difficult to explore the complicit positions that structures of violence produce In investigating the elisions of memory discourses Beyond Collective Memory challenges the dominance of collective memory and calls attention to the African pasts metaphors and imaginaries that exist beyond it
