Visions of Amen Stephen Schloesser, 2014-07-10 French composer Olivier Messiaen 1908 1992 is probably best known for his Quartet for the End of Time premiered in a German prisoner of war camp in 1941 However Messiaen was a remarkably complex intelligent person with a sometimes tragic domestic life who composed a wide range of music This book explores the enormous web of influences in the early part of Messiaen's long life The first section of the book provides an intellectual biography of Messiaen's early life in order to make his difficult music more accessible to the general listener The second section offers an analysis of and thematic commentaries on Messiaen's pivotal work for two pianos Visions of Amen composed in 1943 Schloesser's analysis includes timing indications corresponding to a downloadable performance of the work by accomplished pianists Stphane Lemelin and Hyesook Kim The Gramophone, 1926 An Organist's Guide to Resources for the Hymnal 1982, 1987 A listing of organ settings descants and alternative harmonizations for the tunes of The Hymnal 1982 along with their publishers volume location in a multi volume work or selection location in a collection and level of difficulty This book does not contain the music itself Gramophone, 2002 Playing the Organ Works of César Franck Rollin Smith, 1997 A companion to the author's Toward and Authentic Interpretation of the Organ Works of César Franck this title applies the sources discussed in that volume in its practical approach to performance Each of Franck's twelve major organ works is discussed in detail the manuscript the work's history and association with Franck and his circle published editions corrections to the 1959 Durand edition and recorded performances Technical problems are discussed and solutions provided A glossary of terms found in Franck's organ works is provided with English translation Franck's often confusing registration indications are translated and explained performance of each work is discussed in light of the information provided by Franck's own pupils their students and contemporaries A bibliography of Franck literature published from 1983 to 1996 is also included The Pacific Coast Musician, 1921 César Franck R. The Sound of Hope Kellie D. Brown, 2020-06-05 Since ancient times music has demonstrated the incomparable ability to touch and resonate with the human spirit as a tool for communication emotional expression and as a medium of cultural identity During World War II Nazi leadership recognized the power of music and chose to harness it with malevolence using its power to push their own agenda and systematically stripping it away from the Jewish people and other populations they sought to disempower But music also emerged as a counterpoint to this hate withstanding Nazi attempts to exploit or silence it Artistic expression triumphed under oppressive regimes elsewhere as well including the horrific siege of Leningrad and in Japanese internment camps in the Pacific The oppressed stubbornly clung to music wherever and however they could to preserve their culture to uplift the human spirit and to triumph over oppression even amid incredible tragedy and suffering This volume draws together the musical connections and individual stories from this tragic time through scholarly literature diaries letters memoirs compositions and art pieces Collectively they bear witness to the power of music and offer a reminder to humanity of the imperative each faces to not only remember but to prevent another such cataclysm
