The Mortician S Legacy The Mortician Series Book 3:

A Mortuary of Books Elisabeth Gallas,Alex Skinner,2019-04-30 Winner 2020 JDC Herbert Katzki Award for Writing Based on Archival Material given by the Jewish Book Council The astonishing story of the efforts of scholars and activists to rescue Jewish cultural treasures after the Holocaust In March 1946 the American Military Government for Germany established the Offenbach Archival Depot near Frankfurt to store identify and restore the huge quantities of Nazi looted books archival material and ritual objects that Army members had found hidden in German caches These items bore testimony to the cultural genocide that accompanied the Nazis systematic acts of mass murder The depot built a short lived lieu de memoire a mortuary of books as the later renowned historian Lucy Dawidowicz called it with over three million books of Jewish origin coming from nineteen different European countries awaiting restitution A Mortuary of Books tells the miraculous story of the many Jewish organizations and individuals who after the war sought to recover this looted cultural property and return the millions of treasured objects to their rightful owners Some of the most outstanding Jewish intellectuals of the twentieth century including Dawidowicz Hannah Arendt Salo W Baron and Gershom Scholem were involved in this herculean effort This led to the creation of Jewish Cultural Reconstruction Inc an international body that acted as the Jewish trustee for heirless property in the American Zone and transferred hundreds of thousands of objects from the Depot to the new centers of Jewish life after the Holocaust The commitment of these individuals to the restitution of cultural property revealed the importance of cultural objects as symbols of the enduring legacy of those who could not be saved It also fostered Jewish culture and scholarly life in the postwar world

The Mortuary Papyrus of Padikakem Yekaterina Barbash,2011-12-31 This new study is the first translation of the papyrus of Padikakem with an extensive commentary The complete early Ptolemaic manuscript from the Walters Art Museum contains two uncommon texts in hieratic The initial text a Ritual of Introducing the Multitude on the Last Day of Tekh is identified as a temple liturgy by its rubric title while its themes recall love poetry and the Lamentations of Isis and Nephthys The second text a rarely attested Book III of glorification spells sakhw has an exclusively mortuary character The spells of this section largely originate in the Pyramid Texts and include specific instructions for recitation by the lector priest The two texts are established as a coherent composition that belongs to the Greco Roman tradition of merging Egyptian funerary practices with temple liturgies The diverse sources and themes of the texts shed light on the evolution of Osirian and mortuary theologies from the Old Kingdom onwards The study also thoroughly examines the development of grammar and paleography among the parallels

Smith Wharton, 1916 The Archaeology of Malta Claudia Sagona, 2015-08-25 The Maltese archipelago is a unique barometer for understanding cultural change in the central Mediterranean Prehistoric people helped reshape the islands economy and when Mediterranean maritime highways were being established the islands became a significant lure to Phoenician colonists venturing from their Levantine homeland Punic Malta also sat at the front line of regional hostilities until it fell to Rome Preserved in this island setting are signs of people s endurance and adaptation to each new challenge This book is the first systematic and up to date survey of the islands archaeological evidence from the initial settlers to the archipelago s inclusion into the Roman world c 5000 BC 400 AD Claudia Sagona draws upon old and new discoveries and her analysis covers well known sites such as the megalithic structures as well as less familiar locations and discoveries She interprets the archaeological record to explain changing social and political structures intriguing ritual practices and cultural contact through several millennia The Western Christian Advocate , 1911 Towards a Social Bioarchaeology of the Mycenaean Period Ioanna Moutafi, 2021-06-09 This book investigates the complex relationship between funerary treatment and wider social dynamics through a contextual analysis of human skeletal remains and associated mortuary data from Voudeni an important Mycenaean 1450 1050 BC chamber tomb cemetery in Achaea Greece Voudeni is one of the most significant sites of Achaea thoroughly investigated under the direction of the Honorary General Director of Antiquities Dr Lazaros Kolonas Over 60 chamber tombs spanning the entire Late Helladic III period have been excavated yielding an unprecedented wealth of biocultural information This study explores the post mortem treatment of the body in the Voudeni cemetery through a novel interpretive approach that transcends unproductive cross disciplinary divisions This biosocial approach integrates traditional archaeology current reflections in mortuary archaeological theory and cutting edge bioarchaeological methods primarily focused on funerary taphonomy and archaeoethnology of commingled skeletal assemblages The author proposes that the most effective route to explore the social dimensions of mortuary data is through an emic understanding of historically situated actions and experiences both of the living actors the mourners and of the dead themselves Human skeletal remains are used as the primary strand of evidence both as the object of the acts of the living and the subject of their own lived experiences Most importantly this study aspires to show how reconciliation between abstract theoretical advances and empirical biocultural data may be possible providing the most insightful path to a better understanding of the archaeological mortuary record The book provides a thorough background on Mycenaean mortuary research and explores the topic in successive stages a theoretical and methodological framework b detailed taphonomic analysis and osteological results of 20 tombs c multivariate analysis of bio cultural data across socio temporal parameters with special emphasis on the distinction between the palatial LHIIIA B and the transitional post palatial LHIIIC period and d final synthesis addressing questions pertaining to changing social conditions in Achaea and key issues of current Mycenaean mortuary research These include tomb re use form diversity sequence and frequency of mortuary activities mortality profiles

differential inclusion visibility and funerary treatment of different groups identities changes in treatment of the dead body reflecting shifts in notions of the self and social relationships The results shed new light on social developments in Mycenaean Achaea showing that the complex interaction between changing social conditions and mortuary practice is often reflected in subtle yet meaningful shifts of emphasis in the post mortem treatment of bodies and bones rather than in blatant radical changes
