Towards the Study of Liberian Literature S. Henry Cordor, 1972

Liberia D. Elwood Dunn, 1995 Established as a modern state in 1822 and becoming an independent republic in 1847 Liberia is the product of a complex African past Its birth as a nation was largely made possible because of the efforts of white and black Americans The country sought to pursue a social reformist course in the decades following the Second World War and its role in the creation of the Organization of African Unity was significant Today Liberia remains a country at war with itself de facto partitioned and under the administration of contending governments
