 European Literature Patricia García,2022-01-17 The Urban Fantastic in Nineteenth Century European Literature explores transnational perspectives of modern city life in Europe by engaging with the fantastic tropes and metaphors used by writers of short fiction Focusing on the literary city and literary representations of urban experience throughout the nineteenth century the works discussed incorporate supernatural occurrences in a European city and the supernatural of these stories stems from and belongs to the city The argument is structured around three primary themes Architectures Encounters and Rhythms make reference to three axes of city life material space human encounters and movement This thematic approach highlights cultural continuities and thus supports the use of the label of urban fantastic within and across the European traditions studied here The Athenaeum ,1906 Classified List of Books for Young People Thomas Crane Public
