Early Holistic Scoring of Writing Richard Haswell, Norbert Elliot, 2019-11-01 What is the most fair and efficient way to assess the writing performance of students Although the question gained importance during the US educational accountability movement of the 1980s and 1990s the issue had preoccupied international language experts and evaluators long before One answer to the question the assessment method known as holistic scoring is central to understanding writing in academic settings Early Holistic Scoring of Writing addresses the history of holistic essay assessment in the United Kingdom and the United States from the mid 1930s to the mid 1980s and newly conceptualizes holistic scoring by philosophically and reflectively reinterpreting the genre's origin development and significance The book chronicles holistic scoring from its initial origin in the United Kingdom to the beginning of its heyday in the United States Chapters cover little known history from the holistic scoring of school certificate examination essays written by Blitz evacuee children in Devon during WWII to teacher adaptations of holistic scoring in California schools during the 1970s Chapters detail the complications challenges and successes of holistic scoring from British high stakes admissions examinations to foundational pedagogical research by Bay Area Writing Project scholars The book concludes with lessons learned providing a guide for continued efforts to assess student writing through evidence models Exploring the possibility of actionable history Early Holistic Scoring of Writing reconceptualizes writing assessment Here is a new history that retells the origins of our present body of knowledge in writing studies Word 6.0 for Windows with Style Manuals John M. Preston, Robert Ferrett, 1996 A Guide for Newspaper Stringers Margaret Davidson, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1990 Written by an editor and now Journalism Professor who when directing stringers in New York state who was struck by the tremendous desire of those correspondents to learn and grow in their job despite the paltry pay they received for their efforts This guide has been prepared to help meet the stringer s need for constructive criticism It assumes that all places are interesting and full of newsworthy activities for a professional writer with a good nose for news The Basics of Media Writing Scott A. Kuehn, Andrew Lingwall, 2016-12-08 The Basics of Media Writing A Strategic Approach helps readers develop the essential writing skills and professional habits needed to succeed in 21st century media careers This research driven strategy based media writing textbook digs deeply into how media professionals think and write in journalism public relations advertising and other forms of strategic communication Authors Scott A Kuehn and Andrew Lingwall have created two comprehensive writing models to help students overcome their problems in finding and developing story topics by giving them starting points to begin writing The Professional Strategy Triangle model shows students how to think critically about the audience the situation and the message before starting a news story or persuasive piece and the FAJA four point model asks students a series of questions about their story type Fact Analysis Judgment or Action to guide them to the right angle or organizational structure for their message Rooted in classical rhetorical methods this step by step technique enables readers to strategically approach each writing task no matter the format
