wars in Europe the Pacific Korea and Vietnam the civil rights movement the creation of Israel the end of colonialism in Africa and the Cuban revolution He was one of the first reporters to visit and describe Hiroshima after the atomic bomb He was the first correspondent to penetrate the Haganah the militant Zionist underground in Palestine He recounted the trial of Adolf Eichmann the Army McCarthy hearings and the court martial of William Calley A model of versatility he also wrote with verve and compassion about strip mining in Kentucky squalor on the Bowery and the murder of a shopkeeper in Harlem Despite two Pulitzers and a host of other prizes Bigart never sought fame when he retired from the New York Times in 1972 he quickly faded from public view and few today know the extent to which he was esteemed by his peers and those who came after including Neil Sheehan and David Halberstam This is the first comprehensive biography to encompass all of Bigart's reporting not just his war reporting

Family War Stories Keith P. Wilson,2024-04-16 Based on an extensive collection of letters written from the home front and the battlefield Family War Stories offers fresh insights into how the reciprocal nature of family correspondence can shape a family's understanding of the war Family War Stories examines the contribution of the Densmore family to the Northern Civil War effort It extends the boundaries of research in two directions First by describing how members of this white family from Minnesota were mobilized to fight a family war on the home front and the battlefield and second by exploring how the war challenged the family's abolitionist beliefs and racial attitudes Family War Stories argues that the totality of the family's Civil War experience was intricately shaped by the dynamics of family life and the reciprocal nature of family correspondence Further it argues that the serving sons' understanding of the war was shaped by their direct military experiences in the army camps and battlefields and how their loved ones at home interpreted these experiences With two sons serving as officers in the United States Colored Troops regiments fighting in the Mississippi Valley the Densmore family was heavily involved in destroying slavery Family War Stories analyses how the sons' military experiences tested the family's abolitionist ideology and its commitment to white racial superiority It also explains how the family sought to accommodate the presence of a refugee from slavery working in the family kitchen In some ways the presence of this worker in the household posed an even greater range of challenges to the family's racial beliefs than the sons' military service By examining one family's deep involvement in the war against slavery Wilson analyses how the Civil War posed particular challenges to Northerners committed to abolitionism and white supremacy The Rebellion record ,1863 Qualitative Research Johnny Saldana,Matt Omasta,2016-12-19 Qualitative Research Analyzing Life presents a fresh approach to teaching and learning qualitative methods for social inquiry one that focuses on analysis from the very beginning of the text By exploring qualitative research through a unique analytic lens then cumulatively elaborating on methods in each successive chapter this innovative work cultivates a skill set and literacy base that prepares readers to work strategically with empirical materials in their own fieldwork Renowned authors Johnny Salda a and Matt Omasta combine clear accessible writing and analytic insight to show that analysis in its broadest sense is a process undertaken throughout the entire research experience The Rebellion Record Moore,1866 News of Spain ,1938 History of the United States of America, from the First Settlement of the Country John Howard Hinton,1875 Official Records of the Union and Confederate Navies on the War of the Rebellion United States.
