Linguistic Tools for Written Communication Reshmi Dutta-Flanders, 2024-06-28 This book uses a linguistically and stylistically grounded analytical approach to written discourse to explain the patterns that appear when evaluating academic essays and to explore the potential of nativized linguistic tendencies as strategies in written communication As linguistic behaviour these strategies constitute a multinorm and the author argues that comprehensive awareness of a written norm in a multilingual context is not about language rules for ironing out inequalities but rather about varieties of linguistic practices that construct alternative strategies and patterns in written discourse The book combines topics such as study skills English as a Second Language and English for Academic Purposes but grounds them within a World Englishes and syntactic paradigm exploring why students write in a certain way

due to their linguistic instincts as well as helping students to see practical examples of what this means from the immediate perspective of sentence construction It will be of interest to scholars of Education Language and Linguistics Study Skills EAP and World Englishes as well as students across disciplines who are encountering the academic essay as a form for the first time
