Reconciling Translingualism and Second Language Writing Tony Silva, Zhaozhe Wang, 2020-09-13 This book brings together top scholars on different sides of the important scholarly debate between the translingual movement and the field of second language writing Drawing on a wide range of perspectives this volume examines the differences in theory and practice with the hope of promoting reconciliation between the two schools of thought Chapters address the tensions in the relationship between translingualism and second language writing and explore programs pedagogies and research that highlight commonalities between the two camps With contributions from leading scholars this book comprehensively addresses the issues related to this contentious debate and offers ways to bring the two camps into conversation with one another in a way that promotes effective teaching practices By providing a panoramic view of the current situation the text is a timely and unique contribution to TESOL applied linguistics and composition studies Teaching Literature Rhetorically Jennifer Fletcher, 2023-10-10 English language arts teachers often find themselves defending their discipline and the practical values it has When will I read this again is an all too common question heard in classrooms Author Jennifer Fletcher faced the same questions and more In Teaching Literature Rhetorically Transferable Literacy Skills for 21st Century Students she shows you how to help your students develop transferable literacy skills that allow them to succeed not just in their English language arts classes but in their future lives and careers The book is built around eight high utility literacy skills and practices that will help students communicate effectively and with confidence as they navigate important transitions in their lives Integrating skills and knowledge from texts Reading closely and critically Assessing rhetorical situations Negotiating different perspectives Developing and supporting a line of reasoning Analyzing genres Communicating with self and others in mind Reading and writing with passion Teaching Literature Rhetorically offers readers writing prompts readings discussion questions graphic organizers as well as examples of student work and activities for helping students to understand key rhetorical concepts As Fletcher writes in her introduction rhetorical thinking promotes the transfer of learning the single most important goal we can have as teachers if we hope to have a positive impact on our students lives This book will help teachers everywhere do just that Interdisciplinary Approaches to Distance Teaching Alan Blackstock,Nathan Straight,2015-11-19 Synchronous technologies particularly interactive video conferencing IVC are becoming common modes of teaching and delivering college courses The increasing popularity of IVC in the U S and abroad calls for more pedagogically effective practices for instructors using this technology This volume focuses on innovative and proven approaches to IVC teaching in a variety of disciplines English history biology chemistry geology engineering social work and elementary and special education Contributors hail from a pioneering university at the forefront of distance education and understand the practice and potential of IVC teaching at the highest levels Chapters outline the challenges and benefits of IVC teaching from pedagogical technical and administrative perspectives The Business Communication Handbook Judith Dwyer,Nicole Hopwood,2019-07-18 The Business Communication Handbook 11e helps learners to develop competency in a broad range of communication skills essential in the 21st century workplace with a special focus on business communication Closely aligned with the competencies and content of BSB40215 Certificate IV in Business and BSB40515 Certificate IV in Business Administration the text is divided into five sections Communication foundations in the digital era Communication in the workplace Communication with customers Communication through documents Communication across the organisation Highlighting communication as a core employability skill the text offers a contextual learning experience by unpacking abstract communication principles into authentic examples and concrete applications and empowers students to apply communication skills in real workplace settings Written holistically to help learners develop authentic communication related competencies from the BSB Training Package the text engages students with its visually appealing layout and full colour design student friendly writing style and range of activities Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Cognitive Technology: Instruments of Mind Meurig Beynon,Chrystopher L. Nehaniv,Kerstin Dautenhahn,2003-05-15 Cognitive Technology Instruments of Mind Cognitive Technology is the study of the impact of technology on human cognition the externalization of technology from the human mind and the pragmatics of tools It promotes the view that human beings should develop methods to predict analyse and optimize aspects of human tool relationship in a manner that respects human wholeness In particular the development of new tools such as virtual environments new computer devices and software tools has been too little concerned with the impacts these technologies will have on human cognitive and social capacities Our tools change what we are and how we relate to the world around us They need to be developed in a manner that both extends human capabilities while ensuring an appropriate cognitive fit between organism and instrument The principal theme of the CT 2001 conference and volume is declared in its title Instruments of Mind Cognitive Technology is concerned with the interaction between two worlds that of the mind and that of the machine In science and engineering this interaction is often explored by posing the question how can technology be best tailored to human cognition But as the history of technological developments has consistently shown cognition is also fashioned by technology Technologies as diverse as writing electricity generation and the silicon chip all illustrate the profound and dynamic impact of technology upon ourselves and our conceptions of the world
