

Clinical Narrative: Conversation With a 30-Years-Old Woman With Diabetes

Topic: Health & Medicine | Words: 585 | Pages: 2

Nurse of the future and the path in which nursing will develop in the following years is an interesting topic because this healthcare system needs to be transformed to address the needs of the citizens. A conversation with a 30 years old woman who was recently diagnosed with diabetes and needed help in changing her lifestyle inspired this reflection. This clinical narrative will outline a conversation with a patient that prompted a reflection about a nurse of the future and how these medical professionals can support the health of their communities, how it affected me, and what changes I plan on implementing into my practice.

This conversation happened with a 30-year-old patient who had diabetes and complained of not having enough understanding of how to manage it once she is discharged from the hospital. One thing she focused on is the fact that the medical professionals advised her to change her diet and use DASH to regulate her eating habits. However, she did not cook before and did not know how to approach the matter, and the amount of information she found online was overwhelming.

I think with this conversation, and I made a difference because I choose to actively listen to the complaints and fears that M. A. had instead of dismissing them and telling her to find information online or follow the advice she was already given. In general, the conversation went well because my main goal was to help M. A. by further explaining her
