

Writing a Process Paper

What is a Process Paper?

The purpose of a Process Paper is to explain the steps or process that you followed in order to research your topic, and create your project. Process papers are easy to write as long as you effectively answer four essential "How" questions.

The Four Essential "How" questions

- 1) How did you choose your topic?
- 2) How did you conduct your research?
- 3) How did you choose your project format and create your project?
- 4) How does your project relate to the theme "The Individual in History" ?

Process Paper Sections

Your process paper should be divided into four sections. Each section should answer one of the essential "How" questions. Be sure to provide details and examples. Be specific and don't forget your audience! Your paper should create and satisfy your readers' curiosity. It should be easy to read with no gaps or awkward transitions.

Section 1: How We Chose Our Topic

This section explains why you chose your particular topic.

Section 2: How We Conducted Our Research

This section gives a detailed explanation of the steps that were taken to research your topic. Be sure to include specific details about the resources that you used. (For example, did you go to the library, use the Internet, interview a relative, watch a documentary, etc?)

Section 3: How We Created and Developed Our Exhibit (Documentary, Performance etc.)

This section explains why you chose your particular project category (exhibit, website, etc.) and it gives detailed information about the steps that were taken to make your project.

Section 4: How Our Project Relates to the Theme

This section explains how your topic relates to the theme " The Individual in History".

Checklist for your Process Paper

- ✓ Your paper is 500 words or less.
(On Microsoft Word you would select Tools →Word Count)
- ✓ Your paper is divided into four sections.
- ✓ Your paper gives detailed answers to all four essential "how" questions.
- ✓ Your process paper is typed and double-spaced.
(On Microsoft Word, you would select Format →Paragraph →Line Spacing →Double Space.)
- ✓ Your paper is engaging for your reader, is well written, and has no spelling or grammatical errors.

Writing Process Paper:

Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye, 1990-12-13 Most writing is done under pressure An executive has to produce a three page position paper by tomorrow at nine A department head suddenly has to write a one page action memo by noon A graduate student has a twenty page research paper due in a week Yet while most students and professionals write under pressure with limited time limited space and a supervisor or instructor to please few approach the task systematically In Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye a renowned expert on the subject presents a system he calls the Quick Writing Process QWP that focuses on real world writing tasks and demonstrates how to produce the clearest most honest most powerful work possible under the constraints of time and space A writing instructor with twenty five years experience teaching students and professionals in business and government Kaye tells writers how to budget their time and how to use this time efficiently Exploring particular writing situations in which QWP can be applied to make the most of what the writer knows Kaye discusses the process of taking exams focusing on how instructors select questions and evaluate essays He also considers writing in business and government featuring an insightful analysis of a memo written by Colonel Oliver North This memo highlights one of the most important issues writers in business and government face whether to write the truth as they see it or simply what their bosses want to hear Presenting a wealth of such examples Kaye reveals how to break through stifling organizational codes in order to write memos and position papers that count While most guides to writing ignore the constraints of time and space Writing Under Pressure tackles these problems head on making it an essential reference for students business professionals government officials or anyone else faced with a difficult writing assignment that has to be done now
