Visual Rhetorical Analysis

Fig. 1: “Why Is It So Hard to See Black and Blue” Source: The Salvation Army International

On March 6 of 2015, The Salvation Army released a social media campaign with the intent to reduce and raise awareness of domestic violence. The organization posted this image created by Ireland/Davenport to the social media website Twitter. The image is a photograph of a woman in front of a gray background with bruises covering her face and body. As well as the bruises, she is wearing a white and gold dress from an internet meme that was also well-known at this time. According to this image, the key elements to composing an effective argument are the use of popular trends and pathos.

This image displays an internet meme that gained traction in February of 2015. The seemingly battered model is wearing “The Dress”, which had the world debating over whether the optical illusion was black and blue or white and gold. The advertisement directly references

The Rhetoric of Cool Jeff Rice, 2007-05-11 The Rhetoric of Cool Composition Studies and New Media offers a historical critique of composition studies rebirth narrative using that critique to propose a new rhetoric for new media work Author Jeff Rice returns to critical moments during the rebirth of composition studies when the discipline chose not to emphasize technology cultural studies and visual writing which are now fundamental to composition studies Rice redefines these moments in order to invent a new electronic practice The Rhetoric of Cool addresses the disciplinary claim that composition studies underwent a rebirth in 1963 At that time three writers reviewed technology cultural studies and visual writing outside composition studies and independently used the word cool to describe each position Starting from these three positions Rice focuses on chora appropriation commutation juxtaposition nonlinearity and imagery rhetorical gestures conducive to new media work to construct the rhetoric of cool An innovative work that approaches computers and writing issues from historical critical theoretical and practical perspectives The Rhetoric of Cool challenges current understandings of writing and new media and proposes a rhetorical rather than an instrumental response for teaching writing in new media contexts The World is a

Text: Writing About Visual and Popular Culture Jonathan Silverman,Dean Rader,2018-04-30 Wherever we look today popular culture greets us with texts that make implicit arguments this book helps students to think and write critically about these texts The World Is a Text teaches critical reading writing and argument in the context of pop culture and visual examples showing students how to read everyday objects and visual texts with basic semiotics The book shows how texts of all kinds from a painting to a university building to a pair of sneakers make complex arguments through their use of signs and symbols and shows students how to make these arguments in their own essays This new edition is rich with images real world examples writing and discussion prompts and examples of academic and student writing The first part of the book is a rhetoric covering argumentation research the writing process and adapting from high school to college writing while the second part explores writing about specific cultural topics Notes instruction and advice about research are woven into the text with research instruction closely tied to the topic being discussed New to the updated compact edition are chapters on fashion sports and nature and the environment Best of the Independent Journals in Rhetoric and Composition 2014 Steve

Carillo,2015-01-15 Securing a Place for Reading in Composition addresses the dissonance between the need to prepare students to read not just write complex texts and the lack of recent scholarship on reading writing connections Author Ellen C Carillo argues that including attention to reading practices is crucial for developing more comprehensive literacy pedagogies Students who can read actively and reflectively will be able to work successfully with the range of complex texts they will encounter throughout their post secondary academic careers and beyond Considering the role of reading within composition from both historical and contemporary perspectives Carillo makes recommendations for the productive integration of reading instruction into first year writing courses She details a mindful reading framework wherein instructors help students cultivate a repertoire of approaches upon which they consistently reflect as they apply them to various texts This metacognitive frame allows students to become knowledgeable and deliberate about how they read and gives them the opportunity to develop the skills useful for moving among reading approaches in mindful ways thus preparing them to actively and productively read in courses and contexts outside first year composition Securing a Place for Reading in Composition also explores how the field of composition might begin to effectively address reading including conducting research on reading revising outcome statements and revisiting the core courses in graduate programs It will be of great interest to writing program administrators and other compositionists and their graduate students Monsters in the Classroom Adam Golub,Heather Richardson Hayton,2017-03-03 Exploring the pedagogical power of the monstrous this collection of new essays describes innovative teaching strategies that use our cultural fascination with monsters to enhance learning in high school and college courses The contributors discuss the implications of inviting fearsome creatures into the classroom showing how they work to create compelling narratives and provide students a framework for analyzing history culture and everyday life Essays explore ways of using the monstrous to teach literature film philosophy theater art history religion foreign language and other subjects Some sample syllabi assignments and class materials are provided Eloquent Design Lisa A. Baird,2015-09-18 Humans first attempts to record their thoughts resulted in images painted in the decorated caves throughout Europe known as Upper Paleolithic Art As humans developed written alphabets to record their thoughts in words the images they painted and the words they wrote competed for attention As the Sister Arts tradition attests words and pictures have developed along distinct though related lines With the rise of New Media however the innovative inter animation of words and pictures in the screen space of the computer deserves and requires artists and designers and rhetoricians to take a fresh look at the complexities of human communication particularly the way in which words and pictures share commonalities The range of image texts from cave to computer from palimpsests to pixels demands critical attention from modern designers who create innovative image texts for New Media Eloquent Design Essays on the Rhetorics of Vision explores ancient image making as a basis for understanding the modern uses of image texts in New Media Eloquent Design also considers the current state of imaginative design from the Sister Arts tradition to Gestalt theories of vision to social semiotics of image texts Moreover Eloquent Design proposes a generative method for creating image texts a technique called Rhetorical Vision Applications of the generative mode of Rhetorical Vision give rise to the innovative designs of palimpsests and experimental modes of writing such as creative nonfiction Essays in Eloquent Design outline a method for teaching Rhetorical Vision as the inter animation of words and pictures

Measuring Writing: Recent Insights into Theory, Methodology and Practice Elke van Steendam, Marion Tillema, Gert Rijlaarsdam, Huub van den Bergh, 2012-11-20 This volume provides a state of the art overview of theory methodology and practices in the assessment of writing The focus throughout the book is on the construct of writing and its assessment what constitutes writing ability and how can it be defined in various contexts This question cannot be answered without looking into the methodological question of how to validate and measure the construct of writing ability Throughout the book therefore discussions integrate theoretical and methodological issues A number of chapters discusses whether varying definitions and varying operationalizations of writing ability are needed in various contexts such as formative assessments versus summative assessments large scale assessments versus individual assessments different tasks different genres and different languages but also different age groups A range of rating methods is investigated and discussed in this book The ongoing debate on holistic versus analytic ratings and the different underlying conceptions of writing proficiency is a pertinent matter on which a number of chapters in this volume shed new light The matter is discussed and analyzed from various angles such as generalizability of judgements and usability in formative contexts Another fundamental debate concerns computer scoring of written products A nuanced discussion of its validity is presented in this volume

The Top Books of the Year Writing A Visual Rhetoric Paper The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
