Directive on alternative investment fund managers Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2010-02-10 In this report the European Union Committee warn that unless the Directive on alternative investment funds is compatible with a global regulatory approach it will seriously damage the EU and UK economies The UK Government should not agree with the Directive unless it is compatible with equivalent legislation in third countries and in particular the United States It is essential to ensure that EU alternative investment fund managers do not lose competitiveness at a global level This is a particular concern for the UK and the City of London which has a large alternative investment fund industry that employed an estimated 40 000 people in 2009 The Committee recognise the risk the aggregate activity of hedge funds could cause to financial stability and welcome the principle of EU regulation of the managers The Directive has the potential to reduce risk posed by fund managers and be beneficial to the single market and the EU economy as a whole The Committee stress that the requirements on provision of information should be proportionate and carefully thought out to ensure Supervisors are provided with the relevant data The Committee also criticise the one size fits all approach of the Directive The Directive covers a wide variety of fund managers including hedge funds private equity and infrastructure funds and its detailed requirements must differentiate between types of managers to avoid unwanted outcomes that could restrict the operation of fund managers unnecessarily House of Lords Weekly Information

Bulletin Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. Information Office, 1980 Turning the Tide on Piracy, Building Somalia's Future Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2012-08-21 Operation Atalanta has made clear progress in reducing the number of ships pirated with only 8 vessels and 215 hostages held in June 2012 compared to 23 vessels and 501 hostages in the same month in 2011 Nonetheless the report makes clear that it is vital this effort is extended beyond 2014 to show the EU will not walk away from confronting piracy in the Indian Ocean Otherwise organisations and individuals that organise piracy will simply wait out the operation before returning to their previous activities The report welcomes the increase in trials and imprisonment of pirates and particularly praises the role played by the Seychelles However the Committee do express concerns about the policy of transferring sentenced pirates back to Somalia for imprisonment and suggest there is a risk of breakouts They call on the EU and UN to work together to monitor pirate prisons They also say efforts should be made to ensure the imprisonment includes some efforts at rehabilitation as well as punishment particularly for young pirates Other findings in the report include Somali piracy will never be completely eradicated until the root causes of the problems in the country are addressed through aid focused on providing alternative
