Contemporary Special Education Research Russell Gersten, Ellen P. Schiller, Sharon R. Vaughn, 2000-03-01 Considerable research in the past 30 years has accumulated regarding the academic and social functioning of youngsters with disabilities. Only in the past decade has there been sufficient special education research published from which meta analyses and syntheses can be conducted. In this volume seven sets of authors grapple with synthesizing the knowledge base on an array of critical topics in the field of special education. Among others specific chapters include a synthesis of what is known about effective instructional grouping practices for reading, an examination of the differences between students classified as learning disabled and other low achieving students on a range of academic performance measures, a review of effective instruction for English language learners, an examination of the research on behavioral supports for low incidence special education populations, a synthesis on how technology supports literary development across the full spectrum of disabilities categories. These papers provide up to date informative summaries of current knowledge and a base from which further venture into the critical area of instructional intervention in special education can occur. List of the Books of Reference in the Reading Room of the British Museum William Brenchley Rye, 1889 List of the Books of Reference in the Reading Room of the British Museum John Winter Jones, 1889 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies. More than 10 000 titles are included. The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies. British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included. Other fields covered are folklore, film, literary theory, general and comparative literature, language and linguistics, rhetoric and composition, bibliography and textual criticism, and women's studies. Wilson Library Bulletin Stanley Kunitz, Marie Duvernoy Loizeaux, 1922
