Board of School Directors, 1931 International Perspectives on Citizenship, Education and Religious Diversity Robert Jackson, 2003-09-02 Citizenship is high on the agenda of education systems in many of the world's democracies As yet however discussions of citizenship education have neglected issues of religious diversity and how the study of religions can contribute to our understanding of citizenship International Perspectives on Citizenship Education and Religious Diversity brings together an international range of contributions from religious studies scholars and educators specialising in the study of religions Together these illustrate and explore the key questions for educational theory and pedagogy raised by drawing issues of religious diversity into citizenship education The chapters address and extend debates
