Graffiti and Street Art Konstantinos Avramidis, Myrto Tsilimpounidi, 2016-12-08 Graffiti and street art images are ubiquitous and they enjoy a very special place in collective imaginary due to their ambiguous nature Sometimes enigmatic in meaning often stylistically crude and aesthetically aggressive yet always visually arresting they fill our field of vision with texts and images that no one can escape As they take place on surfaces and travel through various channels they provide viewers an entry point to the subtext of the cities we live in while questioning how we read write and represent them This book is structured around these three distinct albeit by definition interwoven key frames The contributors of this volume critically investigate underexplored urban contexts in which graffiti and street art appear shed light on previously unexamined aspects of these practices and introduce innovative methodologies regarding the treatment of these images Throughout the focus is on the relationship of graffiti and street art with urban space and the various manifestations of these idiosyncratic meetings In this book the emphasis is shifted from what the physical texts say to what these practices and their produced images do in different contexts All chapters are original and come from experts in various fields such as Architecture Urban Studies Sociology Criminology Anthropology and Visual Cultures as well as scholars that transcend traditional disciplinary frameworks This exciting new collection is essential reading for advanced undergraduates as well as postgraduates and academics interested in the subject matter It is also accessible to a non academic audience such as art practitioners and policymakers alike or anyone keen on deepening their knowledge on how graffiti and street art affect the ways urban environments are experienced understood and envisioned visual arts and art history Researching Society and Culture Clive Seale, Carol Rivas, 2025-02-07 Just starting out with social research With contributions from experts across the social sciences this book equips you with the tools for successfully investigating society and culture It shows you how to prepare for research generate and analyse data and present your findings Balancing theory with practice it covers foundational concepts in methods and methodology alongside contemporary developments This radically updated new edition Sees all chapters fully rewritten in a friendly accessible style Offers additional chapters on participatory research and online big data Includes multiple case studies of real world research from across the globe in every chapter Celebrates the dynamic reflexive nature of research as engagement with the world

Collaborative Methods Kaylan C. Schwarz, Claudia Mitchell, Rebekah Hutten, 2025-10-16 Collaborative Methods explores the intersections between participatory data analysis and feminist research traditions that complement each other but are rarely examined together The chapters highlight two key approaches methods where participants help analyze the data they contributed to and non hierarchical collaborative methods involving research teams Contributors demonstrate how to choose an approach that best aligns with one s research questions study context and participant availability and interest They also encourage scholars to thoroughly describe their methodological designs decision points and processes rather than keeping the focus only on their findings Through a feminist lens the authors present a range of perspectives resisting a singular approach Instead they engage with the fluid and contested nature of feminist research each author drawing on different feminist traditions to shape their work The volume encourages scholars to think critically about the co production of knowledge making it an essential resource for social science researchers and students who are invested in feminist and participatory methodologies Contributors Nesa Bandarchian Rashti Emma C Cognet L Rebeca Esquivel Jessica Fields Sarah Flicker Geetanjali Gill Jillian Grace Goyeau Nadha Hassen Rebekah Hutten Terra L ger Goodes Meegwun Logan Catherine Malboeuf Hurtubise Mitchell McLarnon Claudia Mitchell Milka Nyariro Kathryn Kendal Ryan Kaylan C Schwarz Grace Skahan Catherine Vanner Angelina Weenie Dawn Wiseman 4theRecord Team China Exchange News ,1995 A review of education science and academic relations with the PRC The Impossibility Of Mapping (Urban Asia) Ute Meta Bauer, Puay Khim Ong, Roger Nelson, 2020-02-12 Following the lifework 1960s to 2010 of visionary Singaporean architect William S W Lim The Impossibility of Mapping Urban Asia is a compelling compilation of case studies and historical projects This multifaceted publication takes Lim s ideas to a future Asia a region defined by an irreducibly complex urban topography under constant flux Looking from Singapore to Southeast Asia and from this region to Asia more expansively and beyond it presents a diverse range of activities which may be productively framed through the notion of critical spatial practice The book has three interconnected points of departure Lim s lifework the interdisciplinary exhibition Incomplete Urbanism Attempts at Critical Spatial Practice at NTU Centre for Contemporary Art Singapore and the related conference The Impossibility of Mapping Urban Asia and the cross cultural and urban festival CITIES FOR PEOPLE NTU CCA Ideas Fest

2016 17 held at venues around Gillman Barracks Singapore The multiple links are emphasised in three key ways through editorial texts through design concepts and through selected projects inserted as intermissions between each of the book's sections Artists planners activists architects scholars get together in this volume to respond to Lim's critical spatial practice Research essays artworks visual and textual documentation spatio-temporal maps grapple with the diversity of Southeast Asia offering unexpected responses to planning building and living cities and urban spaces but also put forward the question Who owns the city This key collection offers a path into spatial questions in Asia and beyond and serves as a teaching and research tool

The Work of Managers Stefan Tengblad, 2012-02-16 Managers are significant actors in contemporary organizations and yet there is very little deep level analysis of what managers do and how they understand their managerial selves and social situations Instead of evaluating management techniques according to their internal logic and systematic qualities this book advances the practice perspective using behaviour and activities of successful experienced and skilled managers as the primary data for theorizing good management In this book academics review classic literature on managerial work discuss methodological and theoretical approaches and present empirical studies on various kinds of managers at different levels of organizations in different roles and different sectors from construction site managers and CEOs of large companies to university vice chancellors and front line health care managers It makes the case for studies of managerial work that look beyond the rational and ordered world to the challenges presented by inter alia work and information overload complexity performance pressures unintended consequences and irreconcilable expectations

Women, Witchcraft, and the Inquisition in Spain and the New World María Jesús Zamora Calvo, 2021-10-27 Women Witchcraft and the Inquisition in Spain and the New World investigates the mystery and unease surrounding the issue of women called before the Inquisition in Spain and its colonial territories in the Americas including Mexico and Cartagena de Indias Edited by María Jesús Zamora Calvo this collection gathers innovative scholarship that considers how the Holy Office of the Inquisition functioned as a closed secret world defined by patriarchal hierarchy and grounded in misogynistic standards Ten essays present portraits of women who under accusations as diverse as witchcraft bigamy false beatitude and heresy faced the Spanish and New World Inquisitions to account for their lives Each essay draws on the documentary record of trials confessions letters diaries and other primary materials Focusing on individual cases of women brought before the Inquisition the authors study their subjects social status particularize their motivations determine the characteristics of their prosecution and deduce the reasons used to justify violence against them With their subjection of women to imprisonment interrogation and judgment these cases display at their core a specter of contempt humiliation silencing and denial of feminine selfhood The contributors include specialists in the early modern period from multiple disciplines encompassing literature language translation literary theory history law iconography and anthropology By considering both the women themselves and the Inquisition as an institution this collection works to uncover stories lives and cultural practices that for
