

introduction

The Cumberland Graphic Identity Standards Manual was created to provide all Cumberland employees and associates with the ability to maintain the college's visual identity through an easy-to-follow set of guidelines. The success of the Cumberland Graphic Identity depends on the consistent use of these standards by everyone involved in the creation of Cumberland communications. This includes external suppliers such as advertising and design agencies and printers, as well as internal Cumberland communications professionals. The Office of Communications staff will answer any questions related to the system and provide art and production assistance whenever needed.
