University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university

Who Is an African? Roderick R. Hewitt, Chammah J. Kaunda, 2018-09-15 The subject of race and identity is a burning issue which continues to occupy the attention not only of South Africans but also the wider residents of the continent of Africa and those who are Africans in the Diaspora The outburst of xenophobic attacks against foreigners mostly of Black African origins in some communities of Kwa Zulu Natal and areas of Johannesburg during 2008 and 2015 has raised questions about the social cohesion of South African society linked to unresolved structural identity issues bequeathed by the nation s past colonial and apartheid legacy This publication argues that there is an embedded schizophrenic identity crisis within the society that requires scholarly interrogation The chapters assemble scholarly voices from different ethnic groups that examine the central research question of this study Who is an African Within the wider Southern African context identity and ethnicity politics are framing nationalist economic policies and are impacting on social cohesion within many countries Writing from different social and racial locations the authors have critically engaged with the central question and offer some important insights that can serve as a resource for all nations grappling with issues of race ethnicity identity constructed politics and social cohesion

Afterimages of Apartheid Kylie Thomas, 2025-10-29 Afterimages of Apartheid shows how photographs of the past can be mobilised as a critical tool for understanding the ongoing effects of apartheid in contemporary South Africa Through close readings of significant images made during and after apartheid the book shows how photography works as a means of documentation commemoration and resistance Written by one of South Africa's leading scholars of visual history the book considers the ways in which photographs can be used to contest impunity for state violence Afterimages includes chapters on the Sharpeville and Marikana massacres on the re opening of cases of human rights violations that remain unresolved in the aftermath of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and on contemporary protests against the post apartheid state The book makes a powerful case for the role of photographs in drawing the viewer into the past time they represent issuing a call to the living to remember respond and react This vivid account of the photography of apartheid will be of interest to students and researchers across the fields of South African history visual studies memory studies art history photography studies and transitional justice

African Language Digital Media and Communication Abiodun Salawu, 2018-10-03 While some academic attention has been paid to the impact of new digital technologies on African media in the colonial languages of English French and Portuguese there is a dearth of research into African language digital communication This book analyses the online presence of African language media The chapters in the book focus on the speed structure content navigation and interactivity operations and performance and audience of the online media They also pay particular attention to how social media such as Facebook Twitter and WhatsApp have been appropriated by African language media Using a wide range of case studies the contributors assess the challenges of adopting digital technologies by the media and how the technologies have impacted journalistic practice and media operations Examining the ability of the African language press to adopt new technologies this book will be of interest to scholars of media journalism communication social media and culture in Africa

History through Narratives of Education in Africa, 2024-04-15 Who were the actors involved in colonial and post independence education in Africa This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews autobiographies films and undiscovered archival sources Throughout the book educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction negotiations and struggles Contributors include Ant nia Barreto Lars Folke Berge Clara Carvalho Charlotte Courreye Pierre ric Fageol Fr d ric Garan Esther Ginestet Pedro Goulart Pierre Guidi Lydia Hadj Ahmed Kalpana Hiralal Mamaye Idriss Mihary Jaofeno Rehana Thembeke Odendaal Roland Rakotovao Maria da Luz Ramos Ellen Vea Rosnes Caterina Scalvedi Eva Van de Velde Pieter Verstraete The Palgrave Handbook of Social Movements, Revolution, and Social Transformation Berch Berberoglu,2018-09-26 This handbook on social movements revolution and social transformation analyzes people s struggles to bring about social change in the age of globalization It examines the origins nature dynamics and challenges of such movements as they aim to change dominant social economic and political institutions and structures across the globe Departing from a theoretical introduction that explores major classical and contemporary theories of social movements and transformation the contributions collected here use a class based approach to examine key cases of social movements rebellions and revolutions worldwide from the turn of the twentieth to the early twenty first centuries Against this wide ranging background the handbook concludes by charting the varied and competing future developments and trajectories of social movements revolutions and social transformations Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant,Keyan G. Tomaselli,2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the

Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century
 The book re examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa Urban Resettlements in the Global South Raffael Beier, Amandine Spire, Marie Bridonneau, 2021-09-09 Urban Resettlements in the Global South provides new perspectives on resettlement through an urban studies lens To date resettlement has been theorised through development studies and refugee studies but urban resettlement is also a major dimension of urban development in the Global South and may help to rethink contemporary urban dynamics between spectacular new town developments and rising incidences of eviction and displacement Conceptualising resettlement as a binding notion between production regeneration and destruction demolition of urban space helps to illuminate interdependencies and to underline significant ambiguities within affected people s perspectives towards resettlement projects This volume will offer an interesting selection of ten different case studies with rich empirical data from Latin America North and Sub Saharan Africa and Asia focused on each stage of resettlement before during after relocation through different timescales By offering a frame for analysing and rethinking resettlement within urban studies it will support any scholar or expert dealing with resettlement displacement and housing in an urban context seeking to improve housing and planning policies in and for the city Sex, Sexuality and Sexual Health in Southern Africa Deevia Bhana, Mary Crewe, Peter Aggleton, 2022-07-15 This book Sex Sexuality and Sexual Health in Southern Africa is structured around four major themes gender and sexuality diversity love pleasure and respect gender sexual violence and health and sexuality gender and sexual justice Chapters in this book analyse sexuality in relation to recent developments in the Southern African region and what this might mean for contemporary theory policy and practice Sex sexuality and sexual health are often viewed through a narrow biomedical lens ignoring the fact that they are profoundly social and historical in character The contributors in this book bring to light the entanglements of sexuality with respect recognition rights and mutual respectful pleasure Authors draw attention to partnerships allyships and feminist queer and trans coalitions in the pursuit of sexual health and justice in the region The book will be of interest to final year undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and activists as well as those working in Women and Gender Studies Critical Sexuality Studies Sexual and Reproductive Health Development Studies Public Health Psychology Education Sociology and Anthropology

Challenging Inequality in South Africa Michelle Williams,Vishwas Satgar,2021-05-13 In Challenging Inequality in South Africa Transitional Compasses leading scholars of South Africa explore creative possibilities to challenge structures of economic social and political power that produce inequality Through concrete empirical examples of movements workers struggles initiatives and politics in challenging inequality the authors illustrate transitional compasses that go beyond protest politics to a generative politics a politics of building the alternatives in the interstitial spaces of capitalism The conceptual framing is oriented around the way in which power is produced and reproduced through intricate relationships between hegemonic projects and everyday life While power underpins all social relations it is often taken for granted as it is frequently hidden behind other social relations Resistance to power emerges through engendering counter hegemonic projects that are intertwined with alternative everyday practices The authors highlight sources of alternative forms of power found in resistance to dominant forms of power through concrete experiences to create transformative alternatives To concretize the conceptual framing the authors look at the emancipatory possibilities of a universal basic income the use of law in tackling inequality in health and education creative initiatives to establish a people centred food system through food sovereignty new forms of organizing led by precarious workers democratic possibilities in local state delivery and attempts at reconceptualizing the good life by looking at issues of happiness and ecosocialism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube,2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development

Perspectives on Multigrade Teaching Linley Cornish, Matshidiso Joyce Taole, 2021-10-25 This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form The research results have implications for multigrade teachers government education personnel and university teacher educators The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class kindergarten to grade 6 Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks the number of these schools remains high mostly in rural areas Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non-existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning
