Academic Citizenship, Identity, Knowledge, and Vulnerability Nuraan Davids, 2023-10-09 This book brings into contestation the idea of academic citizenship as a homogenous and inclusive space It delves into who academics are and how they come to embody their academic citizenship if at all Even when academics hold similar professional standings their citizenship and implied notions of participation inclusion recognition and belonging are largely pre determined by their personal identity markers rather than what they do professionally As such it is hard to ignore not only the contested and vulnerable terrain of academic citizenship but the necessity of unpacking the agonistic space of the university which both sustains and benefits from these contestations and vulnerabilities The book is influenced by a postcolonial vantage point interested in unblocking and opening spaces thoughts and voices not only of reimagined embodiments and expressions of academic citizenship but of hitherto silenced and discounted forms of knowledge and being It draws on academics stories at various universities located in South Africa USA UK Hong Kong and the Philippines It steps into the unexplored constructions of how knowledge is used in the deployment of valuing some forms of academic citizenship while devaluing others The book argues that different kinds of knowledge are necessary for both the building and questioning of theory the more expansive our immersion into knowledge the greater the capacities and opportunities for unlearning and relearning Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry Janette Bulkan, John Palmer, Anne M. Larson, Mary Hobley, 2022-06-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview and cutting edge assessment of community forestry Containing contributions from academics practitioners and professionals the Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry presents a truly global overview with case studies drawn from across Africa Asia Europe and the Americas The Handbook begins with an overview of the chapters and a discussion of the concept of community forestry and the key issues Topics as wide ranging as Indigenous forestry conservation and ecosystem management relationships with industrial forestry trade and supply systems land tenure and land grabbing and climate change are addressed The Handbook also focuses on governance looking at the range of approaches employed including multi level governance and rights based approaches and the principal actors involved from local communities and Indigenous Peoples to governments and national and international non governmental organisations The Handbook reveals the importance of the historical context to community forestry and the effects of power and politics Importantly the Handbook not only focuses on successful examples of community forestry but also addresses failures in order to highlight the key challenges we are still facing and potential solutions The Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry is essential reading for academics professionals and practitioners interested in forestry natural resource management conservation and sustainable development Urban Infrastructure in Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa, Abraham R.
